Matthew Lloyd, Andrew Clarke

Brownlow Medal Tickets:

The Immortals of Australian Football Andrew Clarke, 2024-07-31 Fully illustrated profiles of the most legendary Australian Rules players The Immortals of Australian Football celebrates the greatest players from Australia's indigenous game It takes the Immortals concept made famous elsewhere in the sporting world and applies it to AFL Selections include the pioneering Roy Cazaly legendary figures Ron Barassi and Leigh Matthews and modern era greats such as Lance Franklin and Dustin Martin Each Immortal's remarkable story and contribution to the sport is expertly told The Changi

Brownlow Roland Perry, 2012-07-31 This is the moving powerful and surprising story of a group of Australian POWs who organise an Australian Rules Football competition under the worst conditions imaginable inside Changi prison After Singapore falls to the Japanese early in 1942 70 000 prisoners including 15 000 Australians are held as POWs at the notorious Changi prison Singapore To amuse themselves and fellow inmates a group of sportsmen led by the indefatigable and popular Chicken Smallhorn created an Australian Football League complete with tribunal selection panel umpires and coaches The final game of the one and only season was between Victoria and the Rest of Australia which attracted 10 000 spectators and a unique Brownlow Medal was awarded in this unlikely setting under the curious gaze of Japanese prison guards Meet the main characters behind this spectacle Peter Chitty the farm hand from Snowy River country with unfathomable physical and mental fortitude and one of eight in his immediate family who volunteered to fight and serve in WW2 Chicken Smallhorn the Brownlow medal winning little man with the huge heart and Weary Dunlop the courageous doctor who cares for the POWs as they endure malnutrition disease and often inhuman treatment Changi Brownlow is a story of courage and the invincibility of the human spirit and highlights not only the Australian love of sport but its power to offer consolation in times of extreme hardship The Stolen Dream John Devaney, 2019-07-04 The book examines a period when football underwent a seismic and ineradicable change brought about by the determination of the Victorian Football League to wrest control of the game's development and destiny from the various state controlling bodies and the Australian Football Council Whereas the VFL had initially been the first among equals it gradually assumed the role of the sole and undisputed guardian of the code The AFC once football's ostensible national controlling body became an irrelevance Instead of a national sport with a national remit we ended up with an expanded VFL with a majority of Victorian member clubs supplemented by a token sprinkling of teams from interstate Such teams were in most cases created from scratch and could in no way be said to derive directly from the states unique and distinctive football traditions and culture For some it was a brave new world but evolution does not inevitably entail improvement Derby Sean Gorman, David

Whish-Wilson, 2017-04-01 The State is divided It's not life or death it's more important So says a poster on Dennis Cometti's wall and that's what David Whish-Wilson and Sean Gorman found when they interviewed 40 fans of the West Coast Eagles and the Fremantle Dockers The book features James Baker Julie Bishop Fedele Camarda Maria Camporeale Kevin Croon
