Strategic Thinking, Deterrence and the US Ballistic Missile Defense Project Reuben Steff, 2016-04-01 A systematic critical survey of American strategic thinking and the strategic culture in which it is formed In particular this book seeks to interrogate the theory and strategy of nuclear deterrence and its relationship to the concept of missile defence Drawing widely on the theoretical literature in international relations and strategic studies it identifies the key groups that have competed over America's nuclear policy post 1945 and examines how the concept of missile defence went through a process of gestation and intellectual contestation leading to its eventual legitimization in the late 1990s Steff sheds light on the individuals groups institutions and processes that led to the decision by the Bush administration to deploy a national missile defence shield Additionally Steff systematically examines the impact deployment had on the calculations of Russia and China In the process he explains that their reactions under the Bush administration have continued into the Obama era revealing that a new great power security dilemma has broken out This Steff shows has led to a decline in great power relations as a consequence

Countering the Proliferation of Weapons of Mass Destruction Thanos P Dokos, 2020-07-24 As counter proliferation is expected to become the central element in the new national security policy of the US such actions will constitute a central element of every major international conflict in the first decades of the 21st century One of the most important geostrategic phenomena of the past decade has been the extraordinary diffusion of war making capabilities from the developed North to the developing South In the eyes of some proliferant states possessing nuclear biological and chemical NBC weapons would not only add to their regional stature but would also offer an asymmetrical counter to the West's massive superiority in conventional forces In the Eastern Mediterranean and the Middle East a number of countries are assumed to possess varying levels of NBC weapons capabilities Reasons for concern include the fact that such weapons have been used in the past the region's geographic proximity to Europe and the vital interests of the West which is prepared under certain circumstances to use force to protect them the multiplicity of conflicts and other security problems and the general instability in the region including the spread of religious extremism This important and timely book assesses in detail the accuracy of predictions and perceptions about a possible military threat from the Southern Mediterranean Muslim world and their impact on NATO's political and military posture. Thanos P. Doxos presents an assessment of the Alliance's options for dealing with the problem. This book represents an invaluable topical resource for researchers and policy makers. The Evolution of International Security Studies Barry Buzan, Lene Hansen, 2009-08-27 The first intellectual history of International Security Studies since 1945 providing an unparalleled survey for students and scholars. New Security Challenges in Postcommunist Europe Andrew Cottey, Derek Averre, 2002 Cubism was the most influential artistic movement that emerged in the twentieth century. The hallmarks of its style were stamped on the art design and architecture and its aesthetic principles governed the representation of modernity across all the arts. Yet just what cubism was or stood for at the time of its emergence is still in dispute while the explanations offered for its importance for twentieth century art and its legacy for the present are bewildering in their variety. This fascinating book offers a way beyond this confusion a narrative of its beginnings consolidation and dissemination that takes into account not only what the style and the movement signified at the time of its emergence but also the principal writings through which cubism's significance for modernism has been established. Visually stunning with over 100 illustrations this is an essential work for all students and teachers of modern art history. Japan's Security Relations with China Since 1989 Reinhard Drifte, 2005-08-03 1 Japanese Chinese relations under Cold War conditions 2 The rise of traditional and non traditional security concerns 3 Between power balancing and enmeshment policies 4 The dynamics of engagement. New Global Dangers Michael Edward Brown, 2004 Command of the commons the military foundation of U.S. Hegemony Barry R.
