Islam in Bangladesh Razia Akter, 2021-12-06 This study done within the comprehensive Weberian framework focuses on religion and social change in Bangladesh through an imaginative use of qualitative as well as quantitative methods of modern social research It first provides a sociological interpretation of the origin and development of Islam in Bengal using historical and literary works on Bengal The main contribution is based on two sample surveys conducted by Mrs Banu in 20 villages of Bangladesh and in three areas in the metropolitan Dhaka city Using these survey data she gives a sociological analysis of Islamic religious beliefs and practices in contemporary Bangladesh and more importantly she studies the impact of the Islamic religious beliefs on the socio economic development and political culture in present day Bangladesh She also shows how Islam compares with modern education in social transforming capacity This careful and rigorous work is a notable contribution to sociology of religion and helps to deepen our understanding of the interactions between religious and social changes common to many parts of the Third World

Islam and Politics in Bangladesh Mubashar Hasan, 2020-01-27 This book conceptualizes the politics of Bangladesh through an Islamic concept called ummah or the global brotherhood of Muslims It demonstrates that against the backdrop of geopolitics capitalism and free flow of ideas localization of this global religious concept at individual level institutional level major party platforms and state has cemented the current political condition in Bangladesh in which religiosity religious intolerance Islamization and extremism take place By exploring the effects of ummah in Bangladeshi politics this book shows how major political parties have mainstreamed political Islam in the country The book rejects the long standing scholarly claim of religious secular distinction in Bangladeshi politics and argues that with most Muslim dominated states there are no major secular parties in Bangladesh There are only Islamic parties which are more or less Islamic The purely rational domain of politics in Bangladesh is long lost and political Islam sets the framework for politics in the country The reason behind this logic of Bangladeshi politics is formed contained and expanded by ummah

Islamic NGOs in Bangladesh Mohammad Musfequs Salehin, 2016-01-13 NGOs Non Governmental Organizations have emerged in both a development and aid capacity in Bangladesh providing wide reaching public services to the country's population living in extreme poverty However resistance to and limitations of NGO led development which in conjunction with Bangladesh's social transformation led to a new religious based NGO development practice Looking at the role of Islamic NGOs in Bangladesh the book investigates new forms of neoliberal governmentality supported by international donors It discusses how this form of social regulation produces and reproduces subjectivities particularly Muslim women subjectivity and has combined religious and economic rationality further complicating the boundaries and the relationship between Islam modernity and development The book argues that both secular and Islamic NGOs target women in the name of empowerment but more importantly as the most reliable partners to meet their debt obligations of micro financing schemes including sharia based financing The targeted women in turn experience Islamic NGOs as less coercive and more sensitive to their religious environment in the rural village community than are secular NGOs Providing a comparative study of the role of religious and secular NGOs in the implementation of neoliberal policies and development strategies this book will be a significant addition to research on South Asian Politics Development Studies Gender Studies and Religion

Islamic Sermons and Public Piety in Bangladesh Max Stille, 2020-05-14 Islamic sermon gatherings are a central form of public piety and public expression in contemporary Bangladesh Held since the 19th century waz mahfils became so popular that it is today possible to participate in them on a daily basis in many regions of the country Despite their significance in the rise of popular politics the sermons are often disregarded as Islamist propaganda and very little research is dedicated to them This book provides unprecedented access into these sermon gatherings Based on fieldwork and interviews Max Stille analyses an archive of several dozens of sermons He shows how popular preaching shapes roles and rules of what can be said imagined and felt Waz mahfils are a participatory practice of the labouring classes in which religious political and poetic consensus overlap In them Islamic tenets and morals are part of dramatic narrations vocal art and affective communication ranging from immersion and upheaval to laughter about political jokes and parody Suggesting new ways to interpret musical and performative poetics of Islamic speech this book calls for expanding conceptions of civic participation and public discourse and rethinking the role of the senses and religious aesthetics in Islam Political Islam and Governance in Bangladesh Ali Riaz, C. Christine Fair, 2010-10-04 The past decade has seen a marked policy focus upon Bangladesh home to nearly 150 million Muslims it has attracted the attention of the world due to weak governance and the rising tide of Islamist violence This book provides a broad ranging analysis of the growth and impact of political Islam in Bangladesh and reactions to it Grounded in empirical data experts on Bangladesh examine the changing character of Bangladeshi politics since 1971 with a particular focus on the convergence of governance Islamism and militancy They examine the impacts of Islamist politics on education popular culture and civil society and the regional and extraregional connections of the Bangladeshi Islamist groups Bringing together journalists and academics all of whom have different professional and methodological backgrounds and field experiences which impact upon these issues from different vantage points the book assesses Bangladesh's own prospects for internal stability as well as its wider impact upon South Asian security It argues that the political environment of Bangladesh the appeal of Islamist ideology to the general masses and the dynamic adaptability of Islamist organizations all demonstrate that Bangladesh will continue to focus the attention of policy makers and analysts alike This is a timely incisive and original explanation of the rise of political Islam and Islamic militancy in Bangladesh Institutions of Political Islam in Bangladesh Shafi Md Mostofa, 2024-12-31 This book examines the socio political histories religio political agendas and politico militant and for some non violent strategies of institutions of political Islam in Bangladesh Focusing on Jammat e Islami Hefazet e Islam Jammatul Mujahedeen Bangladesh JMB Ansar al Islam Neo Jammatul Mujahedeen Bangladesh Neo JMB Tablighi Jamaat and Islami Andolon Bangladesh it shows how these groups are key actors in the securitization of the postcolonial socio cultural economic and political histories and future of Bangladesh. The volume illustrates the complex ways in which every day lived experiences of peoples of Bangladesh and securitized political and cultural pathways of state governance have shaped and impacted the histories and activities of these groups and the strategies and agendas of these groups to gain political and socio religious legitimacy within and sometimes beyond the secularized cultural landscapes of Bangladesh. Moreover the book argues that even though these Islamist groups bear the same agenda of transforming Bangladesh into an Islamic state their strategies are different and unique. It also discusses the connections of some of these groups to other transnational institutions of political Islam and extremist groups such as Al Qaeda and the Islamic State (IS). This book will be a major intervention in the field of politics religion and South Asian studies.

Encyclopedia of Islamic Insurance, Takaful and Retakaful Mohd Ma'Sum Billah, Ezzedine Ghlamallah, Christos Alexakis, pp 1. The model of Islamic insurance policy is based on the principles of mutual cooperation, brotherhood and solidarity. This timely volume contradicts the widely held belief that insurance policies oppose the teachings of Islam, exploring ways in which it coheres with Shari'ah law. The book explores Takaful, an insurance paradigm that is in accordance with Islamic principles and suits the needs of modern Islamic economies and communities.

Asian Islam in the 21st Century John L. Esposito, John Voll, Osman Bakar, 2008. Asian Islam in the 21st century is divided into two sections: religion, politics and society in major Muslim majority countries and ethnic and religious politics in Muslim minority communities. Muslims in Asia are affected by what is happening in the Arab Middle East and the Western part of the Islamic world.

Women and Islam in Bangladesh T. Hashmi, 2000-03-10. This work of research by Taj Hashmi puts the issue of women's position in society in historical as well as Islamic perspectives to relate it to the objective conditions in Bangladesh.
