El-Gamal, 2006-07-03 This book provides an overview of the practice of

Islamic finance and the historical roots that define its modes of operation The focus of the book is analytical and forward looking It shows that Islamic finance exists mainly as a form of rent seeking legal arbitrage In every aspect of finance from personal loans to investment banking and from market structure to corporate governance Islamic finance aims to replicate in Islamic forms the substantive functions of contemporary financial instruments markets and institutions By attempting to replicate the substance of contemporary financial practice using pre modern contract forms Islamic finance has arguably failed to serve the objectives of Islamic law This book proposes refocusing Islamic finance on substance rather than form This approach would entail abandoning the paradigm of Islamization of every financial practice It would also entail reorienting the brand name of Islamic finance to emphasize issues of community banking micro finance and socially responsible investment
