The two ushers on the outside will take the respective outside aisle, and the two ushers in the middle will take the left and right side of the center aisle

After the offerings are gathered, the 4 ushers will come down the center aisle and line up as they did to receive the offering plates. They will return the plates to the acolyte and bow.

To return, the outside ushers will lead the center ushers to the back of the church. (Always turn inward). The ushers may return to their seats.

The back ushers job is to direct the communicants to the center aisle, beginning with the two center sections of the church in groups of 8-10 people. An effort should be made to allow family groups to commune together. The back usher should make every effort to keep a flow of people to the center aisle.

The front usher's job is to step aside when the communion rail on their side of the church is empty allowing the communicants to advance to the communion rail. The front usher should also count the number of people that will be taking communion

After the center aisles are complete, the back ushers should go to the first of the pews on the outside aisles and continue advancing the people to the center aisle for communion.

The ushers should commune with the last group. You may return to your seats.
