The Barbarian Invasions of Italy Vol 2 I N he year 540 when Antioch was captured by the Persians Belisarius entered Constantinople at the head of his bodyguards bearing the royal treasures of the Goths and accompanied by Witigis and the other prisoners For the second time he brought a captive barbarian monarch to the capital of the East He was now thirty six years of age therefore still in the prime of life and also at the zenith of his glory and good fortune But already precursory signs were becoming visible of the disasters which were about to destroy his happiness poison his existence and sap his manly strength No official triumph was accorded him as on his return from the African war although the people welcomed him with the enthusiasm due to so great a conqueror The first mis fortune to assail him was the suspected infidelity of his wife which cruelly embittered his days Having to go of To the Persian war harassed by this atrocious fear and persecuted by Theodora who had taken Antonina under her protection he achieved little success in the field On returning to Constantinople and discovering that there was no longer any room for doubt as to his wife s pro About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
