Cartoonists, Works, and Characters in the United States through 2005 John Lent, 2006-04-30 This penultimate work in John Lent's series of bibliographies on comic art gathers together an astounding array of citations on American cartoonists and their work. Author John Lent has used all manner of methods to gather the citations: searching library and online databases, contacting scholars and other professionals attending conferences and festivals, and scanning hundreds of periodicals. He has gone to great length to categorize the citations in an easy-to-use scholarly fashion, and in the process has helped to establish the field of comic art as an important part of social science and humanities research. The ten volumes in this series, covering all regions of the world, constitute the largest printed bibliography of comic art in the world and serve as the beacon guiding the burgeoning fields of animation, comics, and cartooning. They are the definitive works on comic art research and are exhaustive in their inclusiveness, covering all types of publications: academic, trade, popular, fan, etc., from all over the world. Also included in these books are citations to systematically researched academic exercises as well as more ephemeral sources such as fanzines, press articles, and fugitive materials, conference papers, unpublished documents, etc., attesting to Lent's belief that all pieces of information are vital in a new field of study such as comic art.

My Yacad Joe Lantz, 2007-03 Why did I write this? Because I believe that every person that desires or claims to be a CHRISTIAN should take the time to conduct a comprehensive study of the Scriptures. Acts 17:11. These were the more noble than Thessalonica in that they received The Word with all readiness of mind and searched the Scriptures daily, whether those things were so. And 2 Tim 3:16 tells us, "All Scripture is given by inspiration of God and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness. This I have done. The result will be that the man of God might become thoroughly equipped for every good work." This study should then be documented in writing, which would then become their directions on how they can improve their own personal lives. Having done this, they will be competent to help a brother or sister in their time of need. Further, every person has their own subjects and/or circumstances; they must determine themselves. Additionally, I believe every Christian should study the birth, history, and future of the CHURCH OF THEIR CHOICE. I then conclude this document with A Synopsis, which might be described as my personal offering. The title I have chosen for these studies and documentation comes from the Hebrew word root YACAD, ya-saud, which means, among others, foundation, cornerstone, or to establish. I believe that we all must build our own foundation, cornerstone, and then establish a viable program in the study of the scriptures. May God Bless all that chose to read, study, and inject these words that I have written. Written for my benefit and with the Grace of God that read them.
