Detroiters as they navigate life during and after their city's bankruptcy Reggie loses his savings trying to make a habitable home for his family Cindy fights drug use prostitution and dumping on her block Lola commutes two hours a day to her suburban job For them financial issues are mired within the larger ramifications of poor urban policies restorative negligence on the state and federal level and even before the decision to declare Detroit bankrupt in 2013 the root causes of a city's fiscal demise Like Matthew Desmond's Evicted Broke looks at what municipal distress means not just on paper but in practical and personal terms More than 40 percent of Detroit's 700 000 residents fall below the poverty line Post bankruptcy they struggle with a broken real estate market school system and job market and their lives have not improved Detroit is emblematic Kirshner makes a powerful argument that cities the economic engine of America are never quite given the aid that they need by either the state or federal government for their residents to survive not to mention flourish Success for all America's citizens depends on equity of opportunity

Life by Algorithms Catherine Besteman, Hugh Gusterson, 2019-05-23 Essays on the downsides dysfunctions and dangers of automated decision making An excellent survey of the algorithmically managed life Choice The phone systems that businesses use to screen calls The link between student standardized test scores and public schools access to resources The algorithms that regulate patient diagnoses and reimbursements to doctors The impenetrable corporate bureaucracy that can drive customers in need of help up the wall or drive them to suicide The storage sorting and analysis of massive amounts of information have enabled the automation of decision making at an unprecedented level Meanwhile computers have offered a model of cognition that increasingly shapes our approach to the world The proliferation of robo-processes is the result as editors Catherine Besteman and Hugh Gusterson observe in this rich and wide-ranging volume which features contributions from a distinguished cast of scholars in anthropology communications international studies and political science Though automatic processes are designed to be engines of rational systems the stories in Life by Algorithms reveal how they can in fact produce absurd inflexible or even dangerous outcomes Joining the call for algorithmic transparency the contributors bring exceptional sensitivity to everyday sociality into their critique to better understand how the perils of modern technology affect finance medicine education housing the workplace food production public space and emotions not as separate problems but as linked manifestations of a deeper defect in the fundamental ordering of our society The Machine Stops E M Forster's 1909 science fiction story tells the tale of a human society collapsing when the technology upon which it has become dependent fails Think of this volume as The Machine Starts a collection of unsettling ethnographic accounts of the rise of algorithmic governance A necessary and sobering call to arms Stefan Helmreich Massachusetts Institute of Technology Contributors include Catherine Besteman Alex Blanchette Robert W Gehl Hugh Gusterson Catherine Lutz Ann Lutz Fernandez Joseph Masco Sally Engle Merry Keesha M Middlemass Noelle Stout Susan J Terrio

Written Corrective Feedback: The Role of Learner Engagement Alia Moser, 2020-12-21 The book provides new insights into written corrective feedback by describing students' expectations as well as mediating factors that influence their engagement with it The book draws on an extensive dataset to illustrate secondary school students behavioural cognitive and emotional engagement with written corrective feedback and the extent to which mediating factors such as teachers peers feedback options attitudes and emotions foster or hinder it It shows why teachers need to provide students with the purpose of the corrective feedback they provide explain how such feedback works and introduce strategies that can be employed to engage with it Based on the finding that a combination of several feedback types is essential to ensure learner engagement the book also provides an extensive description and multiple authentic examples of the Engagement Feedback Mediator Model that was developed in the context of this study Turkey's Nuclear Future Sinan Ülgen,George Perkovich,2015-03-24 Turkey with a robust modern economy and growing energy needs is pursuing a switch to nuclear power But that shift is occurring in an environment fraught with security challenges Turkey borders Iraq Syria and Iran all states with nuclear or WMD ambitions or capabilities As a NATO member Turkey also hosts U S nuclear bombs on its territory although some question the durability of this relationship This dynamic has naturally led to speculation that Turkish leaders might someday consider moving beyond a civilian course to develop nuclear weapons Yet there has been remarkably little informed analysis and debate on Turkey s nuclear future either within the country or in broader international society This volume explores the current status and trajectory of Turkey s nuclear program adding historical perspective analytical rigor and strategic insight Grading Justice Kristen C. Blinne,2021-01-11 In Grading Justice Teacher Activist Approaches to Assessment new and seasoned teachers are invited to engage with socially just approaches of assessment including practices aimed at resisting and undoing grading and assessment altogether to create more democratic grading practices and policies foregrounding the transformative potential of communication within their courses The contributions in this collection encourage readers to consider not only how educators might assess social justice work in and beyond the classroom but also to imagine what a social justice approach to grading and assessment would mean for intervening into unjust modes of teaching and learning Educators wishing to explore critical modes of grading and assessment grounded in social justice will find this book a timely and relevant pedagogical guide for their teaching and scholarship If Einstein Ran the Schools Thomas Armstrong Ph.D.,2019-10-11 Many world class thinkers and creators have been concerned about the state of education in the United States Discover their thoughts on how children really learn and what teachers must do to optimally tap children s latent abilities During the last three decades education reformers have pushed standardized testing and policies like No Child Left Behind and Common Core to improve test scores and proficiency in basic skills However during this period that author Thomas Armstrong calls the miseducation of America a number of troubling trends have surfaced including a decrease in creative thinking scores among children in kindergarten through third grade Rather than focus on what s wrong with the education system that has produced these outcomes Armstrong lays out what creative thinkers know about how children should be educated In an extended thought experiment he asks what would happen if we turned the reins of educational policy over not to the politicians and educational bureaucrats but to eminent thinkers and creators like Albert Einstein Pablo Picasso Martin Luther King Jr Rachel Carson Doris Lessing Jane Goodall and other seminal culture builders What might they say about the best way to educate a child If Einstein Ran the Schools suggests that the answers to this intriguing question should guide future efforts to reform our nation s schools Higher Education - Reflections From the Field - Volume 4 ,2023-11-02 COVID wrought havoc on the world s economic systems Higher education did not escape the ravages brought on by the pandemic as institutions of higher education around the world faced major upheavals in their educational delivery systems Some institutions were prepared for the required transition to online learning Most were not Whether prepared or not educators rose to the challenge The innovativeness of educators met the challenges as digital learning replaced the face to face environment In fact some of the distance models proved so engaging that many students no longer desire a return to the face to face model As with all transitions some things were lost while others were gained This book examines practice in the field as institutions struggled to face the worst global pandemic in the last century The book is organized into four sections on Embracing Quality Assurance Educational Standards and Quality Assurance Evaluating Educational Access and Why Assessment It presents various perspectives from educators around the world to illustrate the struggles and triumphs of those facing new challenges and implementing new ideas to empower the educational process These discussions shed light on the impact of the pandemic and the future of higher education post COVID Higher education has been forever changed and higher education as it once was may never return While many questions arise the achievements in meeting and overcoming the pandemic illustrate the creativity and innovativeness of educators around the world who inspired future generations of learners to reach new heights of accomplishment even in the face of the pandemic
