But Who Do You Say I Am:

Who Do You Say I Am? Derek Rathbun, 2025-07-02 Jesus once asked His disciples a question that's even more hotly debated today than it was back then. Who do people say that I am? Their answers reflected a variety of opinions and not much has changed. Ask that same question today and you'll hear countless views from across the globe. Billions of people recognize Jesus in some form yet offer radically different answers about who He truly is. But according to Jesus Himself, there is only one correct answer. This question isn't just theological; it's eternal. Many faiths honor Jesus in some capacity. Some view Him as a prophet, others as a teacher, still others as a spiritual figure. Similarly, different religions embrace parts of the Bible, some the Old Testament, some the New, each with unique interpretations. Some await a coming Messiah, others believe He has already come. But what if all the Scriptures from Genesis to Revelation spoke with one voice about who Jesus really is? This book is written for anyone, regardless of religion or background, who acknowledges Jesus or believes in any part of the Bible. It invites you on a journey to see that Jesus is not just a part of the story; He is the story. From Adam and Eve to the Exodus, from Passover to the Prophets, every page of Scripture reveals the Messiah, Jesus, the Son of God, who gave His life for the world and rose again. Jesus didn't start a new religion, nor did His story begin with His birth. My hope is that by the end of this book, you'll be able to answer with confidence the most important question ever asked: Who do you say that I am? Who Do You Say I Am? Joanne Grenfell, 2024-08-30 Poetry, prayers, art, and scripture meditations come together to create a reflective guide for personal and corporate devotion on the events at the heart of the Christian story from a contemporary urban perspective. Focusing on the death and resurrection of Christ, this is suitable for year-round use as an alternative form of the Stations of the Cross, but also with a special significance for Holy Week and Easter. Arranged in 14 sections, reflections by Joanne Grenfell and sonnets by Adam Atkinson explore discipleship in today's world, touching on contemporary themes such as identity, truth, telling, violence, abuse, racism, and belonging in relation to being a follower of Jesus. Each is powerfully illustrated with original paintings by artist Ali Mulroy. The prayers are written in the first person as a devotional response to all that has gone before, and each opens with a line from a fresh rendering of the Lenten Prose. The book springs from a series of talks given at St Paul's Cathedral in Holy Week 2023. Who Do You Say I Am? William L. Merrifield, 2010-05 Who Do You Say I Am? seeks to bridge the gap between the reader who reads for empowerment and the reader who reads for knowledge. Both groups will receive what they seek and even spiritual insight into the earthly life of Jesus, whose short ministry spawned a worldwide life-changing movement that grows stronger with each soul saved. Readers are invited to travel back in time with the author and take a look at this itinerant teacher and preacher that history calls Jesus and millions call Savior. This book takes the reader through Old Testament messianic promises, Jewish history, and the gospel accounts, finally arriving in the fullness of God's time at a place in history where a man who lived in a precisely defined period of time during the reigns of Augustus and Tiberius Caesar began a life-changing ministry. Read of Jesus's promised coming and his birth. Visualize the
