Berberick,2020-11-02 This book is an exploration of both mainstream and independent media Grounded in qualitative methods this book explores three trans masculine run YouTube channels alongside the streaming productions The Chilling Adventures of Sabrina Orange is the New Black and Transparent Analyzing and contrasting these narratives illuminates how even the most progressive of pop culture productions fail to present multi dimensional transgender narratives thereby intensifying stigma and shame for those outside of the binary male or female man or woman gay or straight In contrast trans masculine produced YouTube vlogs such as those discussed in this book can help audience members unlearn the ways in which the continuum of sex gender and sexual orientation has been simplified and obscured through corporate media These vlogs thus exemplify the various ways in which independent media acts as an educational tool toward greater awareness and perhaps empathy of for the self and others in regards to sexual identity Social News Edward Hurcombe,2022-02-25 This book is the first to define and describe social news a new kind of journalism emerging in response to social media Drawing on the author s extensive research into news and social media platforms Social News critically examines the rise of well known outlets such as BuzzFeed and Mic in the US and Junkee and Pedestrian in Australia Hurcombe argues that these outlets became successful by strategically engaging with social media producing sociable content personalised for millennials Such outlets have been criticised for violating the rules of quality journalism However this book shows how social news has provided a platform for marginalised voices and has been able to engage readers neglected by legacy news While social media is frequently seen as a threat to the news industry Social News shows that digital platforms have been driving new forms of journalism ones that challenge our understanding of what journalism is can be and should be Digital First PROF SURBHI.
