Mosito, 2025-05-26 A historical overview of the evolution of inclusive education alongside the emergence of concepts such as equity and access highlighting how these ideas have evolved been enacted and practiced in the higher education institutions HEIs of South Africa since 2001 Urban Mobilities in the Global South Tanu Priya Uteng, Karen Lucas, 2017-11-27 The book considers urban mobilities and immobilities in the Global South through an exploration of the theoretical and methodological entry points that can be used to further the agenda of transport planning Transport system improvements can and do have complex and unequal impacts on different sectors of society Conventional approaches to analysing travel demand and transport system performance developed in the Global North are typically ill equipped to identify and understand the complexities and inequities in urban areas of the Global South Using case studies from urban Africa and Asia the book addresses the need to understand the lived world of mobilities and use this knowledge to address issues that are central to our urban existence in the 21st century The Postcolonial Condition of Names and Naming Practices in Southern Africa Tendai Mangena, Oliver Nyambi, Charles Pfukwa, 2016-08-17 The Postcolonial Condition of Names and Naming Practices in Southern Africa represents a milestone in southern African onomastic studies The contributors here are all members of and speakers of the cultures and languages they write about and together they speak with an authentic African voice on naming issues in the southern part of the African continent The volume s overarching thesis is that names are important yet often underestimated socio politico cultural sites on which some of the most significant events and processes in the post colony can be read The onomastic topics covered in the book range from the names of traditional healers and male aphrodisiacs to urban landscapes and street naming from the interface between Chinese and African naming practices to the names of bands of musicians and mini bus taxis There is a strong section on literary onomastics which explores how names have been variously deployed by southern African fiction writers for certain semantic aesthetic and ideological effects The cultures and languages covered in this volume are equally wide ranging and while some authors focus on single languages and cultures for example Thembu Xhosa Shona others look at inter cultural influences such as the influence of the Portuguese and Chinese languages on Shona naming Written by Professor Adrian Koopman Emeritus Professor University of KwaZulu Natal Campus Student Activism, Politics, and Citizenship in the 21st Century Tshishonga, Ndwakhulu, 2025-04-03 Student activism and citizenship remain an integral part of the governance of academic institutions democratizing the learning environment and advancing democratic values and societal change As a result student activism has become a key aspect of the global higher education landscape Individually and through the student councils students have been at the forefront fighting for social justice and equality inside their academic institutions and in larger society by fusing activism with citizenship Through student activism and citizenship students demonstrate their power to keep governments responsible and in redirecting the voices of students in higher education s decision making processes Further exploration may afford students the opportunity to influence social change by partaking in educational policy reforms and broadening global sociopolitical and economic growth Campus Student Activism

Politics and Citizenship in the 21st Century examines the dynamics of campus politics through student activism and citizenship perspectives academia public private and civil society sectors It explores how student leadership engages university society stakeholders including management and governance structures and student welfare and institutional policy reformation in defense of the rights and interests of students This book covers topics such as higher education political engagement and social justice and is a useful resource for policymakers government officials sociologists political scientists academicians and researchers

Faculty Perspectives on Vocational Training in South Africa Eunice Ivala, Chaunda Scott, 2019-03-06 The Cape Peninsula University of Technology CPUT is one of four Universities of Technology established by the South African government in 2005 with a focus on vocational training This book presents faculty experiences of CPUT's innovative work integrated learning and teaching model as well as findings from practice based research being done in the institution The purpose of this volume is to be a resource for other institutions in South Africa that wish to try similar strategies as well as a to trigger a community of practice with vocationally oriented institutions outside of South Africa

Anchored in Place Leslie Bank, Nico Cloete, 2018-11-05 Tensions in South African universities have traditionally centred around equity particularly access and affordability historical legacies such as apartheid and colonialism and the shape and structure of the higher education system What has not received sufficient attention is the contribution of the university to place based development This volume is the first in South Africa to engage seriously with the place based developmental role of universities In the international literature and policy there has been an increasing integration of the university with place based development especially in cities This volume weighs in on the debate by drawing attention to the place based roles and agency of South African universities in their local towns and cities It acknowledges that universities were given specific development roles in regions homelands and towns under apartheid and comments on why sub national place based development has not been a key theme in post apartheid higher education planning Given the developmental crisis in the country universities could be expected to play a more constructive and meaningful role in the development of their own precincts cities and regions But what should that role be Is there evidence that this is already occurring in South Africa despite the lack of a national policy framework What plans and programmes are in place and what is needed to expand the development agency of universities at the local level Who and what might be involved Where should the focus lie and who might benefit most and why Is there a need perhaps to approach the challenges of college towns secondary cities and metropolitan centers differently This book poses some of these questions as it considers the experiences of a number of South African universities including Wits Pretoria Nelson Mandela University and especially Fort Hare as one of its post centenary challenges

SDGs in Africa and the Middle East Region Ismaila Rimi Abubakar, Izael da Silva, Rudi Pretorius, Khaled Tarabieh, 2024-09-01 Africa is one of the most vulnerable regions and one where the implementation of the SDGs is particularly urgent Underinvestments in natural conservation are increasing the vulnerability of people across many

African countries whose well being is endangered by deteriorating socio economic and environmental conditions This volume provides a contribution towards showcasing how natural resources may be more efficiently used and investments may be mobilised to augment the limited public sector funds available to achieve the SDGs This book is part of the 100 papers to accelerate the implementation of the UN Sustainable Development Goals initiative Sustainability and the Humanities Walter Leal Filho,Adriana Consorte McCrea,2018-08-22 This book explores the strong links between sustainability and the humanities which go beyond the inclusion of social sciences in discussions on sustainability and offers a holistic discussion on the intellectual and moral aspects of sustainable development The contributions from researchers in the fields of education social sciences religion humanities and sustainable development fulfill three main aims They provide university lecturers interested in humanities and sustainable development with an opportunity to present their work foster the exchange of information ideas and experiences acquired in the execution of teaching and research and discuss methodological approaches and projects that provide a better understanding of how the humanities can contribute to the debate on sustainable development Prepared by the Inter University Sustainable Development Research Programme and the World Sustainable Development Research and Transfer Centre the book reiterates the need to promote integrated approaches to sustainable development Including practice based lessons learnt that can be replicated further it is a valuable resource for scientists and practitioners working in the humanities and sustainable development
