Leist, 1986 Computational Intelligence Processing in Medical Diagnosis Manfred Schmitt, Horia-Nicolai Teodorescu, Ashlesha Jain, Ajita Jain, Sandhya Jain, 2013-11-11 Computational intelligence techniques are gaining momentum in the medical prognosis and diagnosis This volume presents advanced applications of machine intelligence in medicine and bio medical engineering Applied methods include knowledge bases expert systems neural networks neuro fuzzy systems evolvable systems wavelet transforms and specific internet applications The volume is written in view of explaining to the practitioner the fundamental issues related to computational intelligence paradigms and to offer a fast and friendly managed introduction to the most recent methods based on computer intelligence in medicine Statistical Methods in Medical Research Peter Armitage, Geoffrey Berry, J. N. S. Matthews, 2013-07-01 The explanation and implementation of statistical methods for the medical researcher or statistician remains an integral part of modern medical research This book explains the use of experimental and analytical biostatistics systems Its accessible style allows it to be used by the non mathematician as a fundamental component of successful research Since the third edition there have been many developments in statistical techniques The fourth edition provides the medical statistician with an accessible guide to these techniques and to reflect the extent of their usage in medical research The new edition takes a much more comprehensive approach to its subject There has been a radical reorganization of the text to improve the continuity and cohesion of the presentation and to extend the scope by covering many new ideas now being introduced into the analysis of medical research data The authors have tried to maintain the modest level of mathematical exposition that characterized the earlier editions essentially confining the mathematics to the statement of algebraic formulae rather than pursuing mathematical proofs Received the Highly Commended Certificate in the Public Health Category of the 2002 BMA Books Competition
