

Deacon Training Manual

Introduction from Dr. David C. Little

It is wonderful to be saved! Praise to God for His unspeakable gift. It is a wonder God doesn't take us straight to heaven at the moment of our salvation. He loves us so much and has paid such a price for our salvation that you would think that He would want us to be with Him immediately. But God doesn't do that. He leaves us here to serve.

I served as a pastor for twenty-eight years. They were very good years, and there is nothing as precious as being a shepherd of God's people. In those years, I was spiritually blessed to have wonderful, godly men as deacons. A few of those men were used of God to mold my ministry life, and I will be eternally indebted to them.

When I became the president of Baptist Church Planters (a church planting agency), I determined to give church planters every tool possible to enhance and strengthen the churches they were starting. As missionaries start churches, their purpose is to bring the churches to graduation. To do so, they must have leadership in place, which means a pastor and deacons. Too often, men are put into the office of deacon who have no idea what that necessarily means. I felt it would profit the missionaries and church plants if they had material that could be used to teach qualified men what deacons are and do. Thus, I started this project which I trust will help many churches and will also help men to be used of God as deacons.

It is my prayer that God will use this book to help men be godly servants, and if chosen by the church to be a deacon, will serve as God intended.
