Brown,2012-08-01 Why did I vote for President Barack Hussein Obama II It wasnt because he knew how to read well and sounded eloquent on the stage though this was a very proud change from the last eight years It wasnt because he had written two books though this too was something to be proud of his words in Audacity of Hope truly resonated with me I didnt vote for him because of his ethnicity or how he was perceived by the Pop Life crowd I voted for Barack Obama in 2008 because I read his platform and found it to be in common with his book and his words which were well truly very eloquent However as an aspiring critical thinker I follow no party or ideology without reservation My vote must be earned again and again and again For every vote I consider the past actions of the candidate and what the candidate intends for myself my family my community my state my nation and yes the world Over the course of Barack Obamas Presidency I have been truly astounded by what he has been able to achieve despite the abject obstruction of todays GOP which actively wages a social war on America shameless and arrogant in their position and perspective I am proud of this President and his record This book is at times raw and unvarnished a personal perspective and journey It is also a legacy for my family a commemoration of my trip to President Obamas Inauguration However it also serves as a clear and concise explanation of why I an everyday common American who aspires daily to be better than he was before voted for this President and why now at this moment in 2012 President Barack Hussein Obama II continues to earn my vote without equivocation Barack Obama Jane Sutcliffe,2010-01-01 Did you know Barack Obama s family comes from three different countries His mother was born and raised in the United States His father came from Kenya in Africa His stepfather came from Indonesia Barack Obama Don Nardo,2010 Biography of Barack Obama the 44th president of the United States A Race to the Finish Line Dr. Euclid A.
