Routledge Handbook of EU-Middle East Relations Dimitris Bouris, Daniela Huber, Michelle Pace, 2021-12-30 EU Middle East relations are multifaceted varied and complex shaped by historical political economic migratory social and cultural dynamics Covering these relations from a broad perspective that captures continuities ruptures and entanglements this handbook provides a clearer understanding of trends thus contributing to a range of different turns in international relations The interdisciplinary and diverse assessments through which readers may grasp a more nuanced comprehension of the intricate entanglements in EU Middle East relations are carefully provided in these pages by leading experts in the various sub fields including academics think tankers as well as policymakers The volume offers original reflections on historical constructions theoretical approaches multilateralism and geopolitical perspectives contemporary issues peace security and conflict and development economics trade and society This handbook provides an entry point for an informed exploration of the multiple themes actors structures policies and processes that mould EU Middle East relations It is designed for policymakers academics and students of all levels interested in politics international and global studies contemporary history regionalism and area studies Egypt Azmi Bishara, 2022-07-14 Azmi Bishara's seminal study of the 2011 Egyptian Revolution chronicles in granular detail the lead up to the momentous uprisings and the subsequent transition and coup The book critically investigates the social and economic conditions that formed the backdrop to the revolution and the complex challenges posed by the transition from authoritarianism to democracy Part One From July Coup to January Revolution goes back to what is called the 1952 revolution or the 1952 Coup d'état and traces events until 2011 when Hosni Mubarak stepped down as the president of Egypt after weeks of protest It highlights the relationship between the presidency and the army to show that contrary to popular belief the presidency grew gradually stronger at the expense of other institutions especially the army and reached its apogee under Mubarak Part Two From Revolution to Coup d'Etat covers the critical stages from when the military junta took over the governing of Egypt as the Supreme Council of the Armed Forces SCAF and the election of Morsi up until the coup to overthrow his presidency Using a democratic transition theory perspective Azmi Bishara explains the failure of the democratic transition and how it has impacted on Arab revolutions ever since Written while the revolutions were taking place this book conveys a sense of immediacy and urgency as Bishara makes wide ranging assessments with many of his forecasts corroborated in later years The book is renowned for its use of primary source material including interviews statistics and public opinion polls thus preserving the memory of the revolution and remaining one of the most comprehensive reference books on the subject to date The EU and the European Security Order Rikard Bengtsson, 2009-09-10 This book attempts to conceptualise EU action in the field of regional security Drawing on constructivist theory the framework of the book focuses on the meeting or interface of actors a situation reflecting the mutual construction of self other and situation The analytical framework applied here to European security politics is potentially open ended as the theoretical logic that informs the framework is general and abstract in character and not limited to state actors in an international setting The empirical aim of this book is to further our understanding of the EU as a security actor in a regional perspective The book thus links International Relations scholarship with that of EU studies By analyzing a number of different interfaces such as with Russia the US and other states we can learn more about the circumstances and preconditions and with what resources and power the EU acts in a regional security setting This book will be of great interest to students of European security EU policy IR theory and security studies in general Rikard Bengtsson is Assistant Professor of Political Science at Lund University Sweden He has a PhD in Political Science from Lund University Sweden

The European Union as a Global Conflict Manager Richard Whitman, Stefan Wolff, 2012-05-31 In recent years the European Union EU has played an increasingly important role as a manager of global conflicts This book provides a comprehensive assessment of how the EU has performed in facilitating mediation conflict resolution and peacebuilding across the globe Offering an accessible introduction to the theories processes and practice of the EU s role in managing conflict the book features a broad range of case studies including Afghanistan Bosnia Herzegovina Cyprus Israel Palestine Macedonia and Moldova and examines both the institutional and policy aspects including the common foreign security and defence policy Drawing together a wide range of contributors this will be of great interest to students of European Foreign Policy the EU as a global actor and conflict resolution and management

The Political Economy of Aid in Palestine Sahar Taghdisi-Rad, 2010-10-04 This book examines the nature of donor operations in Palestine and questions the viability of aid as an instrument of economic development in conflict zones It highlights the political and ideological determinants of aid allocation and effectiveness arguing that aid to Palestine cannot bring about significant improvement as long as the Palestinian economy is fundamentally affected by Israeli occupation settlement and blockade

Conflict Transformation and the Palestinians Alpaslan Ozerdem, Chuck Thiessen, Mufid Qassoum, 2016-12-01 This book explores the challenges of transforming the violent conflict between the State of Israel and the Palestinians into just peace There are many challenges involved in the bottom up transformation of the violent structures that sustain the State of Israel s occupation of Palestinian territory This book examines these structures as it assesses the actors and strategies that are contributing to the termination of cycles of violence and oppression Consisting of contributions from both peace practitioners and academics who have conducted research within Israel and the occupied territory the volume utilises a multidisciplinary perspective to examine promising strategies for conflict transformation in Israel and the occupied Palestinian territory Moreover it spells out the types of nonviolent strategy that are being used to expose and undermine occupation structures and surveys the manner in which a variety of key actors are working towards the transformation of the ongoing conflict As a whole the volume presents a proposal for the transformation of the conflict between Palestinians and the State of Israel that embraces the constructive potential of conflict engages with power asymmetry and pushes for justice and accountability This book will be of much interest to students of conflict resolution peace studies Middle Eastern studies the Arab Israeli conflict and IR in general

Challenging the Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions (BDS) Movement Ronnie Fraser, Lola Fraser, 2023-02-13 Challenging the Boycott Divestment and Sanctions BDS Movement focuses on the efforts to oppose antisemitism the academic boycott and the BDS movement The State of Israel has faced many threats most of them military since it was established in 1948 but the threat posed by the NGO forum at the United Nations World Conference against Racism in Durban South Africa in August 2001 was different The forum unleashed the new antisemitism which targeted the State of Israel as well as a non violent civil society based campaign based on the South African anti apartheid campaign of the 1980s which was to form the basis of the international Boycott Divestment and Sanctions BDS movement directed at the State of Israel Featuring case studies from the United States Great Britain Israel and South Africa each chapter of this wide ranging volume discusses examples of opposition to the divisive BDS campaign and the proposed academic boycott of Israel over the last two decades including the fight for formal recognition of the new antisemitism by governments and international bodies and the use of a variety of legal measures The rise of antisemitism within academia and wider society is also examined This book will be vital reading for students scholars and activists with an interest in social movements Israel and Middle East politics and history

Bombardier Abroad David P. Thomas, 2018-10-10T00:00:00Z In Bombardier Abroad Thomas examines several cases of the Canadian aerospace giant's work in the high speed rail sector in South Africa China Tibet and Israel Palestine and argues that these projects are deepening existing social and political tensions By participating in these infrastructure projects Thomas argues Bombardier is both inserting itself into highly contested social and political climates and profiting from actions that further exacerbate existing conditions of dispossession and inequality Thomas also examines the various ways in which the Canadian state supports the work of Bombardier in these countries Centred around a theoretical framework that combines concepts of dispossession political economy and important interventions from the field of settler colonial studies Bombardier Abroad is a critical look at the problematic practices of a Canadian corporation and the ways in which the Canadian state is culpable

The European Union's Democratization Agenda in the Mediterranean Michelle Pace, Peter Seeberg, 2013-09-13 Democracy promotion in the Middle East and North Africa MENA remains a central pillar of the foreign policy the European Union EU Rather than concentrating on the relations between the incumbent authoritarian regimes and the opposition in the relevant countries and on the degree to which these relations are affected by EU efforts at promoting democracy human rights and the rule of law an outside in approach this collection of articles inverts the focus of such relationships and attempts to look at them inside out While some contributions also emphasise the outside in axis given that this continues to be analytically rewarding the overarching thrust of this book is to provide some empirical substance for the claim that EU policy making is not unidirectional and is influenced by the perceptions and actions of its targets Thus the focus is on domestic political changes on the ground in the MENA and how they link into what the EU is attempting to achieve in the region Finally the self representation of the EU and its lack of a clear regional role is discussed This book was published as a special issue of Democratization Foreign Policy Aspects of the War Against Terrorism Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Foreign Affairs Committee, 2006-07-02 This is the seventh report in a series on the foreign policy aspects of the war against terrorism During the course of these inquiries the Committee has covered subjects such as the fall of the Taliban and efforts to rebuild Afghanistan shifts in the organisation of Al Qaeda the war and subsequent situation in Iraq multilateral efforts to tackle terrorist financing and global work to prevent the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction This report returns to a number of these themes and discusses the situations in Israel and the Palestinian Territories Iraq and Iran In addition it looks at the UK's relations with Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates Not only are both countries allies in the war against terrorism they also have experience in understanding and then thwarting the recruitment of extremists
