The Breath of Empire Nichola Khan, 2022-11-19 This Palgrave Pivot combines anthropological biographical and autoethnographic perspectives onto imperial intimacies the transgenerational transmission of colonial and familial trauma and violence in two kinds of household the Chinese family in British Hong Kong and wider imperial Asia and the Anglo Chinese family in England Conjoining approaches from literary anthropology the historiography of Anglo Chinese relations and perspectives on colonial trauma it highlights the relative neglect of women's stories in customary Chinese readings colonial accounts and an ancestral family record from 1800 to the present Offering an alternative view of family history this book links the body as a dwelling for assaults on the ability to breathe through tuberculosis opium smoking asthma and panic with the physical home that is assaulted in turn by bombs killing intimate betrayals and fatal respiratory illness The COVID 19 pandemic of breathlessness serves as mnemonic both for state repression and for the reprisal of historical fears of suffocation and dying These phenomena converge under an analytic concept the author calls respiratory politics The Ponytail Trygve B. Broch,2023-01-01 This open access book adopts a cultural sociology of materiality to explore the hallmark of the female athlete the ponytail Studying a wealth of news articles about ponytails in sports and society Broch uncovers this hairstyle s polyvocality and argues that it is a total social phenomenon By separating his approach from the cultural studies tradition Broch highlights how hair is imbued with codes narratives and myth that allow its wearers to understand maneuver and criticize social gender relations in deeply personal ways Using multiple theories about hair bodies myths and icons he creates a multidimensional method to show how icons are imitated and used As women navigate their practical lives health issues and gendered expectations the ponytail materializes their dynamic maneuvering of cultural and social environments Sporting a ponytail itself an embodiment of movement is filled with a performativity of social movements a cultural kinetics that is never apolitical Human Dignity, Education, and Political Society James Greenaway,2020-07-07 A life of liberty and responsibility does not just happen but requires a particular kind of education one that aims at both a growth of the human soul and an enrichment of political society in justice and the common good This we call a liberal education Forgetfulness of liberty is also a forgetfulness of the multi dimensional nature of the human person and a diminution of political life Keeping in mind what can be lost when liberal education is lost this volume makes the case for recovering what is perennially noble and good in the liberal arts and why the liberal arts always have a role to play in human flourishing Each of the authors herein focuses on the connection of three primary themes human dignity liberal education and political society Intentionally rooted in the hub that joins the three themes each author seeks to unfold the contemporary significance of that hub As a whole the volume explores how the three themes are crucial to each other how they illuminate each other how they need each other and how the loss of one jeopardizes the wellbeing of the others In individual chapters the authors engage various relevant aspects of liberal education As a result the volume is organized into three parts Liberal Education and a Life Well Lived Thinkers on Dignity and Education in History Contemporary Topics in Dignity and Education As education is increasingly channeled into an ever more narrow focus on technical specialization and measured against professional success students themselves face a maelstrom of campus politics and competing political orthodoxies These are among the issues that tend to militate against the operative liberty of the student to think and to speak as a person This edited collection is offered as an invitation to think again about the liberal arts in order to recover the meaning of education as the authentic pursuit of the good life or eudemonia Critical Dreaming Lilian Mengesha,2025-05-20 Ways of knowing against colonialism In the 1990s the North American Free Trade Agreement NAFTA the Violence Against Women Act VAWA and US and Canadian boarding residential schools practices led to an increase in cases of missing and murdered Indigenous women from the US Mexico border Guatemala Canada and the United States Indigenous artists aiming to recontextualize these state sponsored instances of violence created works grappling with time ancestry and relationality Lilian Mengesha interprets the works of these artists within a decolonial context through an aesthetic frame she calls critical dreaming Using methods from performance studies gender studies and Indigenous studies Critical Dreaming considers artists as expert world makers Mengesha examines selected works by Lara Kramer Regina Jos Galindo Rebecca Belmore Monique Mojica LeAnne Howe and Sky Hopinka demonstrating how each materializes alternative modes of experiencing time making kin and communing with land Mengesha argues that critical dreaming is a performance that advances material and embodied practices of survival both individual and collective to challenge colonial and nationalist discourses invested in a teleology of disappeared people history and land Her writing provides valuable insight into the intergenerational effects of settler colonialism on Indigenous communities throughout the Americas looking at how artists build worlds anew through Indigenous ways of knowing and making inspired from the past and repurposed for the present Critical Dreaming offers a resonant framework for understanding Indigenous embodied ways of knowing that work against colonial attempts to discredit or disappear forms of imagination relationality and resistance connecting disparate Indigenous communities This powerful book urges readers to recognize how Indigenous artists contribute to ongoing struggles against multiple forms of colonialism

Unpacking Normativity Kenneth Einar Himma, Miodrag Jovanovic, Bojan Spaic, 2018-11-01 This book provides a new and wide ranging study of law's normativity examining conceptual descriptive and empirical dimensions of this perennial philosophical issue. It also contains essays concerned with among other issues the relationship between semantic and legal normativity, methodological concerns pertaining to understanding normativity, normativity and legal interpretation and normativity as it pertains to transnational law. The contributors come not only from the usual Anglo American and Western European community of legal theorists but also from Latin American and Eastern European communities representing a diversity of perspectives and points of view, including essays from both analytic and continental methodologies. With this range of topics, the book will appeal to scholars in transnational law, legal sociology, normative legal philosophy concerned with problems of state legitimacy and practical rationality as well as those working in general jurisprudence. It comprises a highly important contribution to the study of law's normativity. Holocaust Testimonies

Thomas Pegelow Kaplan, Wolf Gruner, Miriam Offer, Boaz Cohen, 2025-05-15. Close to a time when there will be no more survivors to speak about their suffering, this innovative study takes much needed stock of the past, present and future of Holocaust testimony. Drawing from a vast range of witness accounts, including a never before published survivor interview and carefully situating analysis within broader historical and political discourses, this international team of scholars address many pertinent issues of testimony in the post witness age. These include questions of representation and testimony form, memory politics and the role of the witness, the legacy of the Holocaust and impact on future generations, the digital turn and issues of access and gender and testimony in the wake of MeToo. Stressing the importance of re-assessing, re-contextualizing and re-presenting testimonies, these essays make a powerful case for the ongoing centrality of witnesses and witnessing in Holocaust research, education and memory. In doing so, Holocaust Testimonies skillfully paves the way for future research with survivor testimonies.
