A Minds Matter An Intellectual Autobiography:

A Mind's Matter Stanley L. Jaki, 2002 Yet as a Catholic priest of the Benedictine Order Jaki has never made secret his dislike of the rule that expects one to eliminate religious factors from the so called academic equation To his mind those factors matter very much indeed Descartes: An Intellectual Biography Stephen Gaukroger, 1995-03-30 Ren Descartes 1596 1650 is the father of modern philosophy and one of the greatest of all thinkers This is the first intellectual biography of Descartes in English it offers a fundamental reassessment of all aspects of his life and work Stephen Gaukroger a leading authority on Descartes traces his intellectual development from childhood showing the connections between his intellectual and personal life and placing these in the cultural context of seventeenth century Europe Descartes early work in mathematics and science produced ground breaking theories methods and tools still in use today This book gives the first full account of how this work informed and influenced the later philosophical studies for which above all Descartes is renowned Not only were philosophy and science intertwined in Descartes life so were philosophy and religion The Church of Rome found Galileo guilty of heresy in 1633 two decades earlier Copernicus theories about the universe had been denounced as blasphemous To avoid such accusations Descartes clothed his views about the relation between God and humanity and about the nature of the universe in a philosophical garb acceptable to the Church His most famous project was the exploration of the foundations of human knowledge starting from the proof of one's own existence offered in the formula Cogito ergo sum I am thinking therefore I exist Stephen Gaukroger argues that this was not intended as an exercise in philosophical scepticism but rather to provide Descartes scientific theories influenced as they were by Copernicus and Galileo with metaphysical legitimation This book offers for the first time a full understanding of how Descartes developed his revolutionary ideas It will be welcomed by all readers interested in the origins of modern thought The Philosopher's Autobiography Shlomit C. Schuster, 2003-01-30 Throughout the ages philosophers have examined their own lives in an attempt both to find some meaning and to explain the roots of their philosophical perspectives This volume is an introduction to philosophical autobiography a rich but hitherto ignored literary genre that questions the self its social context and existence in general The author analyzes representative narratives from antiquity to postmodernity focusing in particular on three case studies the autobiographies of St Augustine Rousseau and Sartre Through the study of these exemplary texts philosophical reflection on the self emerges as a valid alternative to Freudian psychoanalysis and as a way of promoting self renewal and change An Intellectual Biography of N.A. Rozhkov John A. González, 2016-09-19 An Intellectual Biography of N A Rozhkov is the first English language study to follow Russia's most gifted and important historian to emerge from the school of V O Kliuchevskii through the transformative decades that bridged the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Rozhkov's early philosophical influences are examined to explain his radicalisation from middle class intellectual academic to Leninist Bolshevik to Menshevik social democrat His Marxist socialist beliefs landed him in gaol several times and eventually he was exiled to

Siberia for a decade where he was able to refine his political worldview and develop his theory of historical development Critical of Lenin and the 1917 revolution he spent the last decade of his life being persecuted by the Bolshevik regime

Beginning At Jerusalem Glenn W. Olsen, 2010-10-29 A highly regarded historian and professor presents a sustained reflection on the meaning of the Church's life in time Divided into five parts each section takes up a period of Church history and considers how the developments in church history relate to the Church today From doctrines to customs Olsen examines both the theological and historical impact of each new development Beginning with ancient Christianity the author illustrates how both secularization and sacralization take place in history and how it corresponds to our own age Taking the reader from late ancient and early medieval Christianity to the full bloom of medieval scholasticism and scholarship to the dawn of the Renaissance and the aggressively anti religious time of the Enlightenment Olsen considers all aspects of every age The final section is a discussion of the Church in our own time confronting such problems as modernization and the relation of the Church to culture Appendices expand on The Catechism of the Catholic Church's teaching on the relation between prayer and history
