Goodheart, Alan Rogers, 2012-02-01 This fascinating collection examines murder jurisprudence the social rules that govern the arrest trial and punishment of people accused of murder in the United States from the colonial period to the present The contributors show how changing social mores have influenced the application of murder law by highlighting the ways cultural biases like racism changing ideas about childhood and insanity and the ameliorative effects of middle class status and paternal imagery both helped and handicapped persons accused of murder Such famous cases as the Lizzie Borden axe murder and African American activist Abu Jamal's murder trial are included Fight On, My Soul James E.C. Norris, 2009 Biography of an African American doctor in Jim Crow Virginia Right to Ride Blair Murphy Kelley, 2010 Through a reexamination of the earliest struggles against Jim Crow Blair Kelley exposes the fullness of African American efforts to resist the passage of segregation laws dividing trains and streetcars by race in the early Jim Crow era Right to Ride Graphic News Amanda Frisken, 2020-03-23 You furnish the pictures and I'll furnish the war This famous but apocryphal quote long attributed to newspaper magnate William Randolph Hearst encapsulates fears of the lengths to which news companies would go to exploit visual journalism in the late nineteenth century From 1870 to 1900 newspapers disrupted conventional reporting methods with sensationalized line drawings A fierce hunger for profits motivated the shift to emotion driven visual content But the new approach while popular often targeted and further marginalized vulnerable groups Amanda Frisken examines the ways sensational images of pivotal cultural events obscenity litigation anti Chinese bloodshed the Ghost Dance lynching and domestic violence changed the public's consumption of the news Using intersectional analysis Frisken explores how these newfound visualizations of events during episodes of social and political controversy enabled newspapers and social activists alike to communicate or challenge prevailing understandings of racial class and gender identities and cultural power
