Practicing Hospitality Pat Ennis, Lisa Tatlock, 2008-01-03 What makes a person or a home hospitable Does hospitality call for a beautifully decorated home and a menu filled with gourmet foods or can it be as simple as offering a friend a cup of tea In Practicing Hospitality two longtime professors and practitioners of home economics provide both the theological base and the practical knowledge to understand and implement God's plan for hospitality They provide a blend of theologically sound content real life illustrations and practical application They focus on developing both the Christian character and practical skills so the act of hospitality is a joy for the host and hostess and a source of encouragement for the guest Each chapter concludes with recipes and projects that provide readers with an opportunity to personally apply the book's content Anyone seeking to grow in their knowledge of biblical hospitality will be richly rewarded by the biblical teaching and practical suggestions in this book The Great Christmas Bowl Susan
