A growing number of people are turning to the Internet to help them find the best deal on a new car. But how do they know they're getting the best deal? The answer is simple: by comparing the prices of the same car from different dealers. This is what the new car buying website, www.carbuyersguide.com, is designed to do. The website allows users to enter their car's make, model, and year, and then compare the prices of that car from different dealers. The website also provides information on the latest car models and features. The website is a valuable resource for anyone looking to buy a new car.

Others in a similar line have contributed positively to British innovation, such as: reconfiguring, for example, the motor vehicle around the mass market; and, possibly, the first, having introduced in a formal form, a systematic business presentation via the book and in the second presentation, (Chandler's) business model.
