McClure, 2017-01-17 A COMPANION TO EURIPIDES A COMPANION TO EURIPIDES Euripides has enjoyed a resurgence of interest as a result of many recent important publications attesting to the poet's enduring relevance to the modern world A Companion to Euripides is the product of this contemporary work with many essays drawing on the latest texts commentaries and scholarship on the man and his oeuvre Divided into seven sections the companion begins with a general discussion of Euripidean drama The following sections contain essays on Euripidean biography and the manuscript tradition and individual essays on each play organized in chronological order Chapters offer summaries of important scholarship and methodologies synopses of individual plays and the myths from which they borrow their plots and conclude with suggestions for additional reading The final two sections deal with topics central to Euripidean scholarship such as religion myth and gender and the reception of Euripides from the 4th century BCE to the modern world A Companion to Euripides brings together a variety of leading Euripides scholars from a wide range of perspectives As a result specific issues and themes emerge across the chapters as central to our understanding of the poet and his meaning for our time Contributions are original and provocative interpretations of Euripides plays which forge important paths of inquiry for future scholarship Brill's Companion to the Reception of Euripides, 2015-09-01 Brill's Companion to the Reception of Euripides provides a comprehensive account of the influence and appropriation of all extant Euripidean plays since their inception from antiquity to modernity across cultures and civilizations from multiple perspectives and within a broad range of human experience and cultural trends namely literature intellectual history visual arts music opera and dance stage and cinematography A concerted work by an international team of specialists in the field the volume is addressed to a wide and multidisciplinary readership of classical reception studies from experts to non experts Contributors engage in a vividly and lively interactive dialogue with the Ancient and the Modern which while illuminating aspects of ancient drama and highlighting their ever lasting relevance offers a thoughtful and layered guide of the human condition Piero di Cosimo Dennis Geronimus, Michael Kwakkelstein, 2019-03-25 The study of Piero di Cosimo belongs no less to the history of the imagination than to the history of art As was true for Giorgio Vasari five centuries ago Piero's intensely personal visual language remains a moving target for modern scholars Yet as surprising and strange as his pictorial solutions appear we have never known as much about Piero as we do today Freed from the powerful spell of Vasari's biography cum cautionary tale the Piero that emerges is not solely a conjurer of the uncanny but a sensitive observer of the emotions the natural and manmade worlds humans and beasts

Landscapes of Dread in Classical Antiquity Debbie Felton, 2018-04-27 Over the last two decades research in cultural geography and landscape studies has influenced many humanities fields including Classics and has increasingly drawn our attention to the importance of spaces and their contexts both geographical and social how spaces are described by language what spaces are used for by individuals and communities and how language use and the passage of time invest spaces with meaning In addition to this spatial turn in scholarship recent years have also seen an emotive turn an increased interest in the study of emotion in literature Many works on landscape in classical antiquity focus on themes such as the sacred and the pastoral and the emotions such spaces evoke such as respectively feelings of awe or tranquillity in settings both urban and rural Far less scholarship has been generated by the locus terribilis the space associated with negative emotions because of the bad things that happen there In short the recent emotive turn in humanities studies has so far largely neglected several of the more negative emotions including anxiety fear terror and dread The papers in this volume focus on those neglected negative emotions especially dread and they do so while treating many types of space including domestic suburban rural and virtual and while covering many genres and authors including the epic poems of Homer Greek tragedy Roman poetry and historiography medical writing paradoxography and the short story
