Advertising, Society, and Consumer Culture Roxanne Hovland, Joyce M. Wolburg, 2014-12-18 Designed as a core textbook for courses in Advertising and Society Advertising Society and Consumer Culture develops an integrated perspective that gives students a framework for understanding past present and future issues in advertising communications Chapter contents cover the entire range of social political cultural regulatory and economic issues that surround advertising and its role in modern society The many social issues addressed include advertising and gender stereotyping advertising to vulnerable audiences and the distribution of wealth in consumer society Advertising Society and Consumer Culture intertwines the development of the consumer culture with its coverage of the historical political regulatory and ethical issues of advertising It includes clear comprehensive tables that chronicle historical developments and key legal cases The text is readable for undergraduates but provides enough depth to serve as a graduate level text Including extensive notes and a bibliography it can be adopted independently or alongside its companion volume Readings in Advertising Society and Consumer Culture The Advertising Handbook Helen Powell,Jonathan Hardy,Sarah Hawkin,Iain Macrury,2013-09-13

The Advertising Handbook is a critical introduction to the practices and perspectives of advertising It explores the industry and those who work in it and examines the reasons why companies and organizations advertise how they research their markets where they advertise and in which media the principles and techniques of persuasion and their effectiveness and how companies measure their success It challenges conventional wisdom about advertising power and authority to offer a realistic assessment of its role in business and also looks at the industry s future The third edition offers new material and a new organising framework whilst continuing to provide both an introduction and an authoritative guide to advertising theory and practice It is shaped to meet the requirements interests and terms of reference of the most recent generation of media and advertising students as well as taking account of some of the most recent academic work in the field and of course contemporary advertising innovations The role of advertising in Indian women's desire to be fair Christina Görke,2014-10-01

This study deals with the situation in India in particular with the situation of young Indian women Ever since advertisers and multinational companies discovered India s remarkable aspiration for light complexions more and more fairness products and most importantly advertisements for fairness products have been established on the Indian market The desire for fair skin in India is a culturally embedded issue but advertising might have reinforced it Reinforcing

Patriarchy Chetna Bhatia, The life of a common Indian woman is full of struggles dilemmas pressures and conflicts Family s pressure to plan kids explanations for opting night shift jobs scolding about going alone to eating places and movies reservation of seats in public transport reaching out to diet and cosmetic industries to attain size zero and ultra fair faces to get her boyfriend s attention back Where does 21st century Indian society stand on such issues Also what role does mass media especially advertising plays in influencing public mindset about women This work acknowledged the need of examining it with reference to a wider context of the hard core issues faced by women in their bedrooms kitchens offices streets and living rooms Therefore a sincere effort was put in reaching out to the people and mapping their minds through a set of questions hidden form about the control over a woman s body the concept of her beauty aspects of her occupation and mobility her role in decision making and in division of labor in the households The book goes one step ahead of the typical impact studies or analysis of stereotypes in advertisements For those interested in women studies the book contains facts about women's movement in India till 2016 and a complete list of issues affecting a woman from her bedroom to her workplace. Those interested in advertising and cultural studies can find a full length discussion on basic aspects of advertising as a format and as an institution. For the scholars of media studies or sociology the work contains self constructed Likert scales and codes. Further the research has attempted to directly compare the advertisements and society on common parameters. The study draws its basic concepts and critical perspective from the works of Richard W Polay, John Fiske, John Hartley, Daniel Schandler, Lewis Hedwig, Kamla Bhasin, Nivedita Menon, Naomi Wolf, Radha Kumar, Foucault, Erving Goffman and Laura Mulvey. The issue has been examined thoroughly in the light of contemporary events and factors which make it more relevant to the present stage of globalized Indian society. Advertising Iain MacRury, 2008-12-19. Advertising once seen as the official art of capitalist society is an increasingly commonplace component of a characteristically promotional culture. Iain MacRury's Advertising offers the means to explore and evaluate this transition with an introduction to advertising for the contemporary reader. Advertising provides a clear and easy guide to a Advertising and Hong Kong Society Kara Chan, 2006. This book is about the roles of advertising in the Hong Kong society; it considers the social, psychological, legal and ethical impact that may result from a campaign or from advertising generally.
