Professionalism Voo Teck Chuan, Richard Huxtable, Nicola Peart, 2018-10-25 Healthcare Ethics Law and Professionalism Essays on the Works of Alastair V Campbell features 15 original essays on bioethics and healthcare ethics specifically The volume is in honour of Professor Alastair V Campbell who was the founding editor of the internationally renowned Journal of Medical Ethics and the founding director of three internationally leading centres in bioethics in Otago New Zealand Bristol UK and Singapore Campbell was trained in theology and philosophy and throughout his career worked with colleagues from various disciplines including law and various branches of healthcare The diversity of topics and depth of contributors insights reflect the breadth and impact of Campbell s philosophical work and policy contributions to healthcare ethics Throughout his long academic career Campbell s emphasis on healthcare ethics being practice oriented yet driven by critical reflection has shaped the field in vital ways The chapters are authored by leading scholars in healthcare ethics and law Directly engaging with Campbell s work and influence the essays discuss essential questions in healthcare ethics relating to its methodology and teaching its intersection with law and policy medical professionalism religion and its translation in different cultural settings Chapters also grapple with specific enduring topics such as the doctor patient relationship justice in health and biomedical research and treatment of the human body and the dead Library Journal ,2004 Includes beginning Sept 15

1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Make / Believe John Hartley, 2025-01-23 This book illustrates that mediated popular culture and science based knowledge systems entangled and compromised as both have become are still a robust crucible for system change for the future when they combine forces Planetary crises require responses from everyone This means that collective action is not simply a scientific or political problem It is a problem of culture and media But modern politics journalism and science were not designed for global climate action They ve divided humans into competitive and often hostile we and they groups Identity news and knowledge are all weaponized Culture makes groups groups make knowledge and knowledge makes enemies What can be done to prevent global conflict and the drift to war Make Believe turns to popular culture and social media to argue for an alternative storyline While the Great Powers are making new enemies emergent classes led by children are using planetary connectivity to make new worlds A digital planet generates new kinds of strategic stories for pan human action based on difference intersectionality and cooperation for a sustainable Earth system Make Believe shows how alternatives to the Great Game of global contestation are gathering strength in unlikely places among women children lifestyle and pop culture Popular digital media literacy is now a prerequisite for the remediation of the planet

A History of the Port Phillip District A. G. L. Shaw, 2003 This account of European settlement in the modern state of Victoria Australia spans developments from the first convict camp established in 1803 on the Bass Strait to the contemporary separation of the district from New South Wales Aborigines whalers adventurers squatters speculators and immigrants figure into this history of Victoria before the gold rush The stories of such key leaders as John Batou and John Pascoe Fawcner offer insight into the founding of Melbourne the economic depression and recovery of the 19th century and the social progress of the 20th century Details are drawn from primary sources including correspondence between officials in Melbourne Sydney and London and newspapers from Batman Swanston the Port Phillip Association and La Trobe
