Around the World in Eighty Days Jules Verne, 2008-05-29 One night in the reform club Phileas Fogg bets his companions that he can travel across the globe in just eighty days Breaking the well established routine of his daily life he immediately sets off for Dover with his astonished valet Passepartout Passing through exotic lands and dangerous locations they seize whatever transportation is at hand whether train or elephant overcoming setbacks and always racing against the clock

Eighty Days Matthew Goodman, 2014-03-11 NATIONAL BESTSELLER On November 14 1889 Nellie Bly the crusading young female reporter for Joseph Pulitzer's World newspaper left New York City by steamship on a quest to break the record for the fastest trip around the world Also departing from New York that day and heading in the opposite direction by train was a young journalist from The Cosmopolitan magazine Elizabeth Bisland Each woman was determined to outdo Jules Verne's fictional hero Phileas Fogg and circle the globe in less than eighty days The dramatic race that ensued would span twenty eight thousand miles captivate the nation and change both competitors' lives forever The two women were a study in contrasts Nellie Bly was a scrappy hard driving ambitious reporter from Pennsylvania coal country who sought out the most sensational news stories often going undercover to expose social injustice Genteel and elegant Elizabeth Bisland had been born into an aristocratic Southern family preferred novels and poetry to newspapers and was widely referred to as the most beautiful woman in metropolitan journalism Both women though were talented writers who had carved out successful careers in the hypercompetitive male dominated world of big city newspapers Eighty Days brings these trailblazing women to life as they race against time and each other unaided and alone ever aware that the slightest delay could mean the difference between victory and defeat A vivid real life re-creation of the race and its aftermath from its frenzied start to the nail biting dash at its finish Eighty Days is history with the heart of a great adventure novel Here's the journey that takes us behind the walls of Jules Verne's Amiens estate into the back alleys of Hong Kong onto the grounds of a Ceylon tea plantation through storm tossed ocean crossings and mountains blocked by snowdrifts twenty feet deep and to many more unexpected and exotic locales from London to Yokohama Along the way we are treated to fascinating glimpses of everyday life in the late nineteenth century an era of unprecedented technological advances newly remade in the image of the steamship the railroad and the telegraph For Nellie Bly and Elizabeth Bisland two women ahead of their time in

Johnson,2021-01-15 Zaynab first published in 1913 is widely cited as the first Arabic novel yet the previous eight decades saw hundreds of novels translated into Arabic from English and French This vast literary corpus influenced generations of Arab writers but has until now been considered a curious footnote in the genre s history Incorporating these works into the history of the Arabic novel Stranger Fictions offers a transformative new account of modern Arabic literature world literature and the novel Rebecca C Johnson rewrites the history of the global circulation of the novel by moving Arabic literature from the margins of comparative literature to its center Considering the wide range of nineteenth and early twentieth century translation practices including bad translation mistranslation and pseudotranslation Johnson argues that Arabic translators did far more than copy European works they authored new versions of them producing sophisticated theorizations of the genre These translations and the reading practices they precipitated form the conceptual and practical foundations of Arab literary modernity necessitating an overhaul of our notions of translation cultural exchange and the global Examining nearly a century of translations published in Beirut Cairo Malta Paris London and New York from Qat R binun Kur z The story of Robinson Crusoe in 1835 to pastiche crime stories in early twentieth century Egyptian magazines Johnson shows how translators theorized the Arab world not as Europe s periphery but as an alternative center in a globalized network Stranger Fictions affirms the central place of mis translation in both the history of the novel in Arabic and the novel as a transnational form itself      To the House of Their Fathers Barnet Litvinoff,1965      Road to Jerusalem Barnet Litvinoff,1966
