Arranged Marriage :

Arranged Marriage Péter Berta, 2023-03-17 Arranged Marriage shows how arranged marriage practices have been undergoing transformation how the gendered and intergenerational politics of agency consent and choice work in the contexts of partner choice and management of marriage and how this type of marriage can be reshaped reinvented and reinterpreted flexibly in response to individual family religious class ethnic and other desires needs and constraints

Arranged Marriage Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni, 2009-09-15 Although Chitra Divakaruni's poetry has won praise and awards for many years it is her luminous exquisitely crafted prose Ms that is quickly making her one of the brightest rising stars in the changing face of American literature Arranged Marriage her first collection of stories spent five weeks on the San Francisco Chronicle bestseller list and garnered critical acclaim that would have been extraordinary for even a more established author For the young girls and women brought to life in these stories the possibility of change of starting anew is both as terrifying and filled with promise as the ocean that separates them from their homes in India From the story of a young bride whose fairy tale vision of California is shattered when her husband is murdered and she must face the future on her own to a proud middle aged divorced woman determined to succeed in San Francisco Divakaruni's award winning poetry fuses here with prose for the first time to create eleven devastating portraits of women on the verge of an unforgettable transformation

Arranged Marriage Péter Berta, 2023-03-17 Arranged Marriage The Politics of Tradition Resistance and Change shows how arranged marriage practices have been undergoing transformation as a result of global and other processes such as the revolution of digital technology democratization of transnational mobility or shifting significance of patriarchal power structures The ethnographically informed chapters not only highlight how the gendered and intergenerational politics of agency autonomy choice consent and intimacy work in the contexts of partner choice and management of marriage but also point out that arranged marriages are increasingly varied and they can be reshaped reinvented and reinterpreted flexibly in response to individual family religious class ethnic and other desires needs and constraints The authors convincingly demonstrate that a nuanced investigation of the reasons complex dynamics and consequences of arranged marriages offers a refreshing analytical lens that can significantly contribute to a deeper understanding of other phenomena such as globalization modernization and international migration as well as patriarchal value regimes intergenerational power imbalances and gendered subordination and vulnerability of women

Arranging Marriage Marian Aguiar, 2018-01-02 The first critical analysis of contemporary arranged marriage among South Asians in a global context Arranged marriage is an institution of global fascination an object of curiosity revulsion outrage and even envy Marian Aguiar provides the first sustained analysis of arranged marriage as a transnational cultural phenomenon revealing how its meaning has been continuously reinvented within the South Asian diaspora of Britain the United States and Canada Aguiar identifies and analyzes representations of arranged marriage in an interdisciplinary set of texts from literary fiction and Bollywood films to digital and print media to contemporary law and policy on forced marriage Aguiar interprets depictions of South Asian arranged marriage to show we are in a moment of conjugal globalization identifying how narratives about arranged marriage bear upon questions of consent agency state power and national belonging Aguiar argues that these discourses illuminate deep divisions in the processes of globalization constructed on a fault line between individualist and collectivist agency and in the process critiques neoliberal celebrations of culture as choice that attempt to bridge that separation Aguiar advocates situating arranged marriage discourses within their social and material contexts so as to see past reductive notions of culture and grasp the global forces mediating increasingly polarized visions of agency
