Art Since 1989

Kelly Grovier

What is the meaning and value of art today? Who makes it and why? What are the main themes that define it? What is its place in society? In history? These are the questions addressed by Art Since 1989, an engaging and accessible survey that provides a crisp and clear map through the maze of contemporary art. Featuring the work of over 200 international artists, the book sheds light on every genre of visual expression at play today – from painting to digital art, sculpture to installation, photography to performance.

Taking as its starting point the collapse of the Berlin Wall in November 1989 and the launch, five months later, of the Hubble Space Telescope, Art Since 1989 surveys the dynamic developments in art practice worldwide in the years that followed. The book's ten chapters examine the key topics and techniques, from portraiture in the age of face transplants and facial recognition software, to political art in an era of terror and war. Artists discussed include Marina Abramović, Ai Weiwei, Banksy, Marlene Dumas, Anselm Kiefer, Jeff Koons, Wangechi Mutu, Cornelia Parker, Grayson Perry, Paula Rego, Richard Serra, Cindy Sherman, Wolfgang Tillmans, Kehinde Wiley and Lynette Yiadom-Boakye.

Kelly Grovier is an acclaimed cultural critic whose writing conveys the excitement, relevance and universality of contemporary art. Art Since 1989 offers an illuminating and highly readable look at this most tempestuous of creative eras.

beyond its Euro American focus as is particularly evident in the large scale international biennales now held all over the globe Are canons and counter canons still relevant Can they be re envisioned rather than merely revised Following an introduction that discusses these issues thirteen newly commissioned essays present case studies of consecration in the contemporary art field and three commissioned discussions present diverse positions on issues of the canon and consecration processes today This volume will be of interest to instructors and students of contemporary art art history and museum and curatorial studies

Cultural Contact and the Making of European Art since the Age of Exploration Mary D.

Sheriff,2010-06-21 Art historians have long been accustomed to thinking about art and artists in terms of national traditions This volume takes a different approach suggesting instead that a history of art based on national divisions often obscures the processes of cultural appropriation and global exchange that shaped the visual arts of Europe in fundamental ways between 1492 and the early twentieth century Essays here analyze distinct zones of contact between various European states between Asia and Europe or between Europe and so called primitive cultures in Africa the Americas and the South Pacific focusing mainly but not exclusively on painting drawing or the decorative arts Each case foregrounds the centrality of international borrowings or colonial appropriations and counters conceptions of European art as a pure tradition uninfluenced by the artistic forms of other cultures The contributors analyze the social cultural commercial and political conditions of cultural contact including tourism colonialism religious pilgrimage trade missions and scientific voyages that enabled these exchanges well before the modern age of globalization Contributors Claire Farago University of Colorado at Boulder Elisabeth A Fraser University of South Florida Julie Hochstrasser University of Iowa Christopher Johns Vanderbilt University Carol Mavor University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Mary D Sheriff University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Lyneise E Williams University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

France and the Visual Arts Since 1945 Catherine Dossin,2019-01-01

Taking on the myth of France s creative exhaustion following World War II this collection of essays brings together an international team of scholars whose research offers English readers a rich and complex overview of the place of France and French artists in the visual arts since 1945 Addressing a wide range of artistic practices spanning over seven decades and using different methodologies their contributions cover ground charted and unknown They introduce greater depth and specificity to familiar artists and movements such as Lettrism Situationist International or Nouveau R alisme while bringing to the fore lesser known artists and groups including GRAPUS the Sociological Art Collective and Nicolas Sch ffer Collectively they stress the political dimensions and social ambitions of the art produced in France at the time deconstruct the traditional geography of the French art world and highlight the multiculturalism of the French art scene that resulted from its colonial past and the constant flux of artistic travels and migrations Ultimately the book contributes to a story of postwar art in which France can be inscribed not as a main or sub chapter but rather as a vector in the wider constellation of modern and contemporary art
