served for 12 years as Prime Minister of the United Kingdom spread over four terms beginning in 1868 and ending in 1894. He also served as Chancellor of the Exchequer four times serving over 12 years. Gladstone's own political doctrine which emphasized equality of opportunity and opposition to trade protectionism came to be known as Gladstonian liberalism. His popularity amongst the working class earned him the sobriquet 'The People's William'. In 1868 Gladstone became Prime Minister for the first time. Many reforms were passed during his first ministry including the disestablishment of the Church of Ireland and the introduction of secret voting. After electoral defeat in 1874 Gladstone resigned as leader of the Liberal Party. After the 1880 general election Gladstone formed his second ministry 1880-1885 which saw the passage of the Third Reform Act as well as crises in Egypt and Ireland where his government passed repressive measures but also improved the legal rights of Irish tenant farmers. Back in office in early 1886 Gladstone proposed home rule for Ireland but was defeated in the House of Commons. The resulting split in the Liberal Party helped keep them out of office with one short break for 20 years. Gladstone formed his last government in 1892 at the age of 82. The Government of Ireland Bill 1893 passed through the Commons but was defeated in the House of Lords in 1893. Gladstone left office in March 1894 aged 84 as both the oldest person to serve as Prime Minister and the only Prime Minister to have served four terms. The Republic, 1851
