Circulations in the Global History of Art Thomas DaCosta Kaufmann, Catherine Dossin, Béatrice Joyeux-Prunel, 2016-03-03
The project of global art history calls for balanced treatment of artifacts and a unified approach This volume emphasizes questions of transcultural encounters and exchanges as circulations It presents a strategy that highlights the processes and connections among cultures and also responds to the dynamics at work in the current globalized art world The editors introduction provides an account of the historical background to this approach to global art history stresses the inseparable bond of theory and practice and suggests a revaluation of materialist historicism as an underlying premise Individual contributions to the book provide an overview of current reflection and research on issues of circulation in relation to global art history and the globalization of art past and present They offer a variety of methods and approaches to the treatment of different periods regions and objects surveying both questions of historiography and methodology and presenting individual case studies An Afterword by James Elkins gives a critique of the present project The book thus deliberately leaves discussion open inviting future responses to the large questions it poses

France and the Visual Arts since 1945 Catherine Dossin, 2018-09-20 Taking on the myth of France s creative exhaustion following World War II this collection of essays brings together an international team of scholars whose research offers English readers a rich and complex overview of the place of France and French artists in the visual arts since 1945 Addressing a wide range of artistic practices spanning over seven decades and using different methodologies their contributions cover ground charted and unknown They introduce greater depth and specificity to familiar artists and movements such as Lettrism Situationist International or Nouveau Réalisme while bringing to the fore lesser known artists and groups including GRAPUS the Sociological Art Collective and Nicolas Schffer Collectively they stress the political dimensions and social ambitions of the art produced in France at the time deconstruct the traditional geography of the French art world and highlight the multiculturalism of the French art scene that resulted from its colonial past and the constant flux of artistic travels and migrations Ultimately the book contributes to a story of postwar art in which France can be inscribed not as a main or sub chapter but rather as a vector in the wider constellation of modern and contemporary art

Prehistoric Steppe Adaptation and the Horse Marsha Ann Levine, Colin Renfrew, Katherine V. Boyle, McDonald Institute for Archaeological Research, 2003 The domestication of the horse was one of the most significant events in the development of many human societies ushering in new modes of transport and warfare and generating social and political change This volume examines the origins of horse husbandry and pastoralism especially nomadic pastoralism in the Eurasian steppe It brings together archaeologists and archaeozoologists from Asia Europe and North America to provide a wide ranging overview of issues and evidence for the development of Central European societies from the Neolithic to the Iron Age Much of the material is here made available in English for the first time The issues surrounding the domestication of the horse are set firmly within the broader context of steppe ecology and human subsistence and with the development of pastoral economies across this crucial geographical zone Sky and Telescope
