Choose the right A levels Ray Le Tarouilly,2017-11-03 Selecting the right A levels is more important than ever in helping you shape your future path whether through securing a place at your ideal university or starting out on your chosen career But with such a huge variety of subject options and combinations on offer where do you begin and indeed what are the right choices In truth what s right is what s best for you and any decisions you make about your future should therefore be informed and personal to you to ensure you find the perfect match to suit your own individual interests skills and learning style Giving you all the knowledge you need at your fingertips to support you in making these important decisions Choose the Right A levels is your one stop source of practical information answering key questions such as What does the course outline look like and how is the subject assessed What key skills does the subject draw on and develop Which subjects are preferred or required for certain degree courses and careers What will I need at GCSE to study the subject and how does the subject compare to GCSE What subjects combine well together This comprehensive and impartial guide also features comparative data on national pass rates for each subject and insightful student case studies on what did and didn t work well for others Written by an expert Careers Adviser and laid out in a simple format for ease of use this accessible guide is your essential aid to navigating the wide range of subject options available and making the best choices for you and your future A Guide to Educational Research Peter Gordon,2014-01-14 This account of development in educational research is intended as a guide to possible research areas both fundamental and policy related for students in colleges and higher education institutions and should also be of interest to those engaged in curriculum planning and administration Great Expectations Commission on the Social Sciences,2017-10-19 The social sciences in the United Kingdom are extensive diverse and influential At any one time more than four million students study the social sciences in schools and about a half million students study social science in universities Total university income from the social sciences is at the four billion dollar level Beyond that many social scientists hold key positions in government business the media civil service and the voluntary sector Great Expectations reviews the status of the social sciences in Great Britain at the beginning of the twenty first century While making clear that work opportunities for social scientists are substantial and that levels of intellectual performance equal that of graduates in physics it provides a hard hitting empirically grounded examination of a near crisis situation The report goes far beyond what one conventionally expects in commissioned reports arguing that the academic treadmill driven by excessive accountability burdens reduces the originality and quality of much academic research The report emphasizes the ideological and parochial nature of much British social research As a result there is little applicability internationally even less interdisciplinary work and at times an outright bias against the market economy as such The Commission Report is even handed tough minded and frank in discussing how it is that social science and new social and technical forces do not always mesh The optimism exuded is measured but genuine Great Expectations offers policy recommendations and scientific goals that can be serviceable not only in the United Kingdom but in all advanced societies in which social research is a central component of economic stability and development It is a superb reference volume enriched by original analysis and pungent clear headed writing Members of the commission include Professor David Rhind Vice Chancellor of the City University served as Chairman of the Commission Members included Huw Beynon Cardiff Patricia Broadbent Bristol Vicki Bruce Edinburgh Barry Buzzan LSE Sue Duncan Government Researcher Stuart Etherington National Council for Voluntary Organizations Janet Lewis Oxford Denise Lievesley UNESCO Richard Portes LBS Marc Renaud Research Council of Canada Michael Tonry Cambridge and David Walker The Guardian
