At The Lord's Table At The Lord's Table:

The Lord's Table Gillian Feeley-Harnik, 2017-01-30 No detailed description available for The Lord's Table At the Lord's Table Howard Crosby, 1894 The Lord's Table Andrew Murray, 1897 A Companion for the Lord's Table; intended as an excitement to stir up the minds of the Lord's ministers and people, etc Samuel Eyles PIERCE, 1809

Understanding Four Views on the Lord's Supper Zondervan, 2009-05-26 The Lord's Supper has been the central and characteristic action of the church at worship. But there are still many ways of understanding it and many questions surrounding this meal. Who should participate in the Lord's Supper? How frequently should we observe it? What does this meal mean? What happens when we eat the bread and drink from the cup? What do Christians disagree about and what do they hold in common? These and other questions are explored in this volume of the fair-minded informative Counterpoints series. Contributors make a case for one of the following views: Baptist view, memorialism, Reformed view, spiritual presence, Lutheran view, consubstantiation, Roman Catholic view, transubstantiation. All contributors use Scripture to present their views and each responds to the others' essays. Included are resources for understanding the topic further, such as: A listing of statements on the Lord's Supper from creeds and confessions; Quotations from noted Christians; A resource listing of books on the Lord's Supper; Discussion questions for each chapter to facilitate small group and classroom use. The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair-minded and respectful of the biblical text. Each volume is a one-stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion. At the Lord's Table Carlton C. Buck, 1956 The Disciples at the Lord's Table Gerard Moore, 2015-06-22 The Disciples at Table: The Christian Church Disciples of Christ is about to enter its third century of worship, evangelism, and Christian worship. This book is a snapshot of their Table practice, its origins, forms, prayers, and ecumenical development. Single-minded pioneers and advocates of Eucharistic Table fellowship each Sunday: the Disciples forged a unique experience of worship within the restorationist paradigm. What did this worship look like? A free tradition, explicitly non-liturgical; these Christian communities were open to the directives of the Scriptures and the inspiration of the Spirit. There were no official texts. Yet there was a plethora of worship books and aids in effect, unofficial texts operating to guide, inform, and develop the Disciples' understanding of the Lord's Table and their worship. For the first time, these devotional books have been uncovered and studied, revealing something of the deeper influences behind Disciples' practice: the common lines of thought and ritual that unknowingly bind the communities and the difficulties that have emerged in light of ongoing ecumenical worship and research. The Lord's Table Andrew Murray, 2015-02-09 How many times have you taken the Lord's Supper and never really contemplated what you were doing? You now need to come to a deeper understanding of the Eucharist: how to prepare yourself to the Lord's Table so that you can receive the blessings that our Lord Jesus says: "Do this in remembrance of me." The Lord's Table is a set of devotions to strengthen our relationship with God Andrew Murray lays out a guide for believers who desire to develop a deeper understanding and insight into the Lord's Holy Supper. The Devotional book offers a three week experience beginning with the week prior, the week during, and the week after the Supper. Each entry is labeled with the day of the week so that you can follow the devotions with ease. Discover the union that satisfies deeper than just taking the bread and wine on the surface. Come and learn the spiritual insights to sit at The Lord's Table with Him. My body which is given for you. My blood which is shed for you. Matthew 26:26 Luke 22:19
