And London Secrets Architecture History Interiors:

A Companion to Contemporary Design since 1945 Anne Massey, 2019-03-26 A critical overview of contemporary design and its place within the broader context of art history A Companion to Contemporary Design since 1945 introduces readers to a collection of specially commissioned essays exploring the complex areas of design that emerged through the latter half of the twentieth century design history design methods design studies and more recently design thinking The book delivers a thoughtful overview of all design disciplines and also strives to stimulate inter disciplinary debate and examine unconsidered convergences among design applications in different fields By offering a new perspective on design the articles assembled here present a challenging account of the boundaries between design history and its cognate disciplines especially art history The volume comprises five sections Time Place Space Objects and Audiences that discuss environments for design and how we interact with designed objects and spaces Notable features include 24 new essays reflecting the current state of design history and theory and examining developments on a global basis Contributions by eminent scholars and practitioners from around the globe Enriched throughout with illustrations A Companion to Contemporary Design since 1945 provides a new and thought provoking revision of our conception and understanding of contemporary design that will be essential reading for students at both undergraduate and graduate levels as well as researchers and teachers working in design history theory and practice and in related fields

Interiors and Interiority Ewa Lajer-Burchard, Beate Söntgen, 2015-11-13

Veranschaulichungsformen von Innerlichkeit finden in der Moderne in Darstellungen des Interieurs ihr prägnantes Bild Die Beiträge der Publikation untersuchen die Verbindungen zwischen architektonischen Innenräumen visuellen und literarischen Darstellungen von Interieurs und dem Konzept der Innerlichkeit vom 18. Jahrhundert bis heute Jene Darstellungen sind Effekte aber auch Produzenten spezifischer Vorstellungen von Innerlichkeit als einer wenn nicht der subjektkonstituierenden Praxis der Moderne

"Rethinking the Interior, c. 1867-1896" Imogen Hart, 2017-07-05 From Aesthetes in Africa to the cultural history of the teapot the essays in this collection contribute to scholarly debates across a wide range of disciplines Addressing the question of whether eclectic relationships in Victorian decorative arts are actually self-conscious iconographic schemes or merely random juxtapositions of assorted objects Rethinking the Interior c. 1867-1896 Aestheticism and Arts and Crafts argues that no firm demarcation exists between the two movements examined here In the process the contributors explore a wide variety of interiors in locations as diverse as London Cornwall New England and Tangiers Analyzing spaces public and private sacred and secular the volume poses several historiographic challenges Drawing on a wide range of feminist and queer theories the book questions the identification of nineteenth-century interiors as exclusively female or family spaces The collection also addresses the complex and temporary character of interiors and responds to the recent scholarly trend to return questions of feeling and embodied experience to the study of the decorative arts

Performance, Fashion and the Modern Interior Fiona Fisher, Trevor Keeble, Patricia Lara-Betancourt, 2011-11-22 An international assessment of how the last 150 years of interior design have been influenced by the clothes people wear and the desire to create drama and social rituals Architectural Space in Eighteenth-Century Europe Meredith Martin, 2017-07-05

Architectural Space in Eighteenth Century Europe Constructing Identities and Interiors explores how a diverse pan European group of eighteenth century patrons among them bankers bishops bluestockings and courtesans used architectural space and d cor to shape and express identity Eighteenth century European architects understood the client s instrumental role in giving form and meaning to architectural space In a treatise published in 1745 the French architect Germain Boffrand determined that a visitor could judge the character of the master for whom the house was built by the way in which it is planned decorated and distributed This interdisciplinary volume addresses two key interests of contemporary historians working in a range of disciplines one the broad question of identity formation most notably as it relates to ideas of gender class and ethnicity and two the role played by different spatial environments in the production not merely the reflection of identity at defining historical and cultural moments By combining contemporary critical analysis with a historically specific approach the book s contributors situate ideas of space and the self within the visual and material remains of interiors in eighteenth century Europe In doing so they offer compelling new insight not only into this historical period but also into our own

Interiors in the Age of Enlightenment Stacey Sloboda, 2023-12-14 Interiors in the Age of Enlightenment provides a comprehensive and interdisciplinary overview of the cultural history of interior design and interior spaces from 1700 to 1850 Considering the interior as material social and cultural artefact this volume moves beyond conventional descriptive accounts of changing styles and interior design fashions to explore in depth the effect on the interior of the materials processes aesthetic philosophies and cultural attitudes of the age From the Palace of Versailles to Virginia coffeehouses and from Chinoiserie bathhouses to the trading exchanges of the West Indies the chapters in this book examine a wide range of themes including technological advancements public spaces gender and sexuality and global movements in interior designs and decorations Drawing together contributions from leading scholars this volume provides the most authoritative and comprehensive survey of the history of interiors and interior architecture in the long eighteenth century The Secret Life of the Modern House Dominic Bradbury, 2021-04-01 Informative and entertaining this publication is a feast for the eyes while also thought provoking and offers excellent inspiration for daydreaming about what makes the perfect modern house Wallpaper A fascinating selection of innovative homes this is a thoughtful journey through the evolution of domestic architecture Sunday Express Over the last century the way that we live at home has changed dramatically Nothing short of a design revolution has transformed our houses and the spaces within them moving from traditional patterns of living all the way through to an era of more fluid open plan and modern styles Whether we live in a new home or a period house our spaces will have been shaped one way or another by the pioneering Modernists and Mid century architects and designers who argued for a fresh way of life Architectural and design writer Dominic Bradbury charts the course of this voyage all the way from the late 19th century through to the houses of today in this ground breaking book Over nineteen thematic chapters he explains the way our houses have been reinvented while taking in along the way the giants of Art Deco influential Modernists including Le Corbusier and Frank Lloyd Wright as well as post war innovators such as Eero Saarinen and Philip Johnson Taking us from the 20th to the 21st century Bradbury explores the progress of modernity itself and reveals the secret history of our very own homes

Appropriated Interiors Deborah Schneiderman, Anca I. Lasc, Karin

Tehve, 2021-12-30 Appropriated Interiors uncovers the ways interiors participate explicitly and implicitly in embedded cultural and societal values and explores timely emergent scholarship in the fields of interior design history theory and practice What is appropriate and inappropriate now These are terms with particular interest to the study of the interior Featuring thirteen original curated essays Appropriated Interiors explores the tensions between normative interiors that express the dominant cultural values of a society and interiors that express new changing and even transgressive values With case studies from the late eighteenth century to the twenty first century these historians theorists and design practitioners investigate the implications of interior design as it relates to politics gender identity spatial abstraction cultural expression racial expression technology and much more An informative read for students and scholars of design history and theory this collection considers the standards assumptions codes and or conventions that need to be dismantled and how we can expand our understanding of the history theory and practice of interior design to challenge the status quo
