Of Irish Golf The:

The American Golfer's Guide to Ireland Graeme McDowell, Brian Keogh, Bill Ruskin, 2011-09-29 Maybe the game of golf wasn't invented in Ireland but to most visitors it seems that way. After all, there are more golf courses per square mile in Ireland than in any part of the world. A golfing visit to Ireland will be the trip of a lifetime for many reasons. First, links courses sparkle like an emerald necklace around the coastline of Ireland. It is subjective to pick the best from so many great courses but here are a few: Royal Portrush, Portstewart, Royal County Down, Baltray, Portmarnock, The European Club, Old Head, Waterville, Ballybunion, Tralee, Lahinch, Doonbeg, Connemara, Carne, Enniscrone, Murvagh, Ballyliffin, and Rosapenna. Second, the past two decades have brought world-class resorts with the finest facilities and championship-level courses including The K Club, Lough Erne, Druids, Glen Mount, Wolsely, Killeen Castle, Glasheen, Galgorm Castle, Slieve Russell, The Heritage, Powerscourt, Adare, Fota Island, Dromoland Castle, and many more. Third, visitors can enjoy over 400 private golf clubs scattered throughout Ireland where greens fees offer excellent value and local members make you feel at home. Not least, the 19th hole is a great opportunity to meet local golfers. An old saying puts it like this: 'There are no strangers in Ireland, only friends you haven't met before.' The successes of Irish golfers on the international circuit have also put the spotlight on the great golf found throughout the island. Pádraig Harrington, Graeme McDowell, Rory McIlroy, Darren Clarke, Paul McGinley, Shane Lowry, and others have been not just successful competitors but wonderful ambassadors for Irish fun and hospitality. I hope you and your friends will come to experience golf in Ireland for yourselves. I can assure you a warm welcome and some wonderful memories. Joe Byrne, Executive Vice President, Tourism Ireland.

The Book of Irish Golf John Redmond, 1997-01-01 Explores the origins of golf in Ireland including the legendary courses and players of this hugely popular sport.

A Course Called Ireland Tom Coyne, 2009-02-19 An epic Celtic sojourn in search of ancestors, nostalgia, and the world's greatest round of golf. In his thirties, married, and staring down impending fatherhood, Tom Coyne was well familiar with the last refuge of the adult male: the golfing trip. Intent on designing a golf trip to end all others, Coyne looked to Ireland, the place where his father had taught him to love the game years before. As he studied a map of the island and plotted his itinerary, it dawned on Coyne that Ireland was ringed with golf holes. The country began to look like one giant round of golf, so Coyne packed up his clubs and set off to play all of it. And since Irish golfers didn't take golf carts, neither would he. He would walk the entire way. A Course Called Ireland is the story of a walking-averse golfer who treks his way around an entire country, spending sixteen weeks playing every seaside hole in Ireland and often battling through all four seasons in one Irish afternoon. Coyne plays everything from the top-ranked links in the world to nine-hole courses crowded with livestock. Along the way, he searches out his family's roots, discovers that a once-poor country has been transformed by an economic boom, and finds that the only thing tougher to escape than Irish sand traps are Irish pubs. By turns hilarious and poetic, A Course Called Ireland is a magnificent tour of a vibrant land and a paean to the world's greatest game.

Redmond,1976 The Golfing Annual ,1892 GOLFING IN IRELAND Robert Armstrong,2007-04-30 Unlike many other books written by American writers for an American market Golfing in Ireland is notable in that real understanding humour and irreverence are key to the visitor being told exactly what they need to know The KerrymanIreland is Europe's hottest golfing destination and one of the most popular golf venues for Americans eager to sample the fabled links Author Rob Armstrong predicted the Irish golf boom in the first edition of Golfing in Ireland in the third he revisits old courses that have undergone revision or expansion and uncovers the best of Ireland's new courses In his crisp irreverent style he also points out those courses that have not stood up those that have been poorly maintained or managed and those that have simply proved disappointing Profiled in this edition are the magnificent Old Head Golf Club in County Cork one of the most exciting new golf courses in the world the extraordinarily beautiful new Ring of Kerry Golf and Country Club in County Kerry that overlooks Kenmare Bay and the expanded golf complex at Ballyliffin in County Donegal He also reviews several new hotels and restaurants that cater to golfers and are near some of Ireland's best courses Armstrong's travel tips include a discussion of the Euro which will soon become the unit of currency in the Irish Republic and a warning about the proliferation of Irish golf tours

The Golf Courses of the British Isles Bernard Darwin,1910 Some dozen or fifteen years ago the historian of the London golf courses would have had a comparatively easy task He would have said that there were a few courses upon public commons instancing as he still would to day Blackheath and Wimbledon He might have dismissed in a line or two a course that a few mad barristers were trying to carve by main force out of a swamp thickly covered with gorse and heather near Woking All the other courses would have been lumped together under some such description as that they consisted of fields interspersed by trees and artificial ramparts the latter mostly built by Tom Dunn that they were villainously muddy in winter of an impossible and adamant hardness in summer and just endurable in spring and autumn finally that the muddiest and hardest and most distinguished of them all was Tooting Bec All this is changed now and the change is best exemplified by the fact that although the club has removed to new quarters poor Tooting itself is now as Tadmor in the wilderness I passed by the spot the other day and should never have recognized it had not an old member pointed it out to me in a voice husky with emotion
