And Downsizing Family Home What Save:

Downsizing The Family Home Marni Jameson, 2016-01-05 It's a rite of passage almost no one will escape the difficult emotional journey of downsizing your or your aging parents' home. Here nationally syndicated home columnist Marni Jameson sensitively guides readers through the process from opening that first closet to sorting through a lifetime's worth of possessions to selling the homestead itself. Using her own personal journey as a basis, she helps you figure out a strategy and create a mindset to accomplish the task quickly, respectfully, rewardingly, and in the best of situations, even memorably. Throughout, she combines her own experience with insights from national experts, antiques appraisers, garage sale gurus, professional organizers, and psychologists to offer practical wisdom and heartwarming advice so you know with certainty what to keep, toss, or sell.

AARP Love and Meaning after 50 Julia L. Mayer, Barry J. Jacobs, 2020-08-04 Sustain loving relationships and set yourself up for emotional wellness in your fifties, sixties, and beyond with this valuable collection of advice from two psychology experts. Drs. Mayer and Jacobs use their clinical wisdom and story-telling abilities to bring to life the challenges for couples as they age. Clutter Jennifer Howard, 2020-09-01 A brilliant and beautiful meditation on the nature of our attachment to things. Reading Clutter made me long for a life without clutter. Malcolm Gladwell, New York Times bestselling author and host of the Revisionist History podcast, is sitting on the floor in my mother's house surrounded by stuff. So begins Jennifer Howard's Clutter, an expansive assessment of our relationship to the things that share and shape our lives. Sparked by the painful two-year process of cleaning out her mother's house in the wake of a devastating physical and emotional collapse, Howard sets her own personal struggle with clutter against a meticulously researched history of just how the developed world came to drown in material goods. With sharp prose and an eye for telling detail, she connects the dots between the Industrial Revolution, the Sears Roebuck catalog, and the Container Store, and shines unsparing light on clutter's darker connections to environmental devastation and hoarding disorder. In a confounding age when Amazon can deliver anything at the click of a mouse and decluttering guru Marie Kondo can become a reality TV star, Howard's bracing analysis has never been timelier. In her stern and wide ranging new manifesto Clutter An Untidy History journalist Jennifer Howard takes the anti clutter message a step further Howard argues that decluttering is not just a personally liberating ritual but a moral imperative a duty we owe both to our children and to the planet Jennifer Reese The Washington Post Blending her personal experience and her research Howard creates an engaging narrative that is colored by her investment in understanding hoarding in all of its complexities Linda Levitt PopMatters Downsizing the Family Home: a Workbook Marni Jameson, 2018-01-02 Part journal part workbook part scrapbook this guide provides valuable advice and how to checklists along with a place to reflect record and retain an important piece of family history gently walking downsizers through the journey Deciding Where to Live Melissa G.
