Cue ,1966 The Papers of Jefferson Davis Jefferson Davis,1999-12-01 Kenneth H Williams Associate Editor Peggy L Dillard Editorial Associate The autumn of 1863 was a trying time for Jefferson Davis Even as he expressed unwavering confidence about the eventual success of the Confederate movement he had to realize that mounting economic problems low morale and rotating army leadership were threatening the welfare of the new nation Less than a year after the October 1863 Confederate victory at Chickamauga the South relinquished Atlanta to Sherman During the tumultuous eleven months chronicled in Volume 10 Davis retained his fervor for southern nationalism as he struggled furiously to command a war and maintain a government As the letters contained here illustrate he soldiered bravely on

Road to Tara Anne Edwards,2014-06-23 Margaret Mitchell was as complex and compelling as her legendary heroine Scarlett O Hara and her story is as dramatic as anything out of her own imagination indeed it is the basis for the legend she created Gone With the Wind took the American reading public by storm and went on to become the most popular motion picture of all time It was a phenomenon whose success has never been equaled and it shattered Margaret Mitchell s private life In this commemorative reprint of Road to Tara Anne Edwards tells the real story of Margaret Mitchell and the extraordinary novel that has become part of our heritage

The Social Impact of Advertising Tony Kelso,2018-09-14 Composed with a touch of the panache of a former advertising copywriter Kelso challenges readers to reflect on the social impact of advertising from multiple angles

The book uniquely combines personal anecdotes with a penetrating look at some of the most critical perspectives toward the field advanced by media scholars. A play on David Ogilvy's legendary Confessions of an Advertising Man, the text disrupts the creative guru's account with a highly accessible critique of advertising suitable for classes in disciplines as various as cultural studies, marketing, media studies, political science, and sociology. The book reflects the latest industry trends, especially the migration from legacy to social media vehicles like Instagram and Snapchat. Topics covered include a brief history of modern advertising in the United States; advertising's influence on the so-called non-advertising content of the media; the ideological themes advertising inadvertently delivers; how advertising can privilege or marginalize various social constructions of identity; the controversial practice of targeting children; and how corporations often use advertising to superficially present a positive face while masking their profoundly darker sides. Incorporating a media literacy approach, Kelso also offers an insider's overview of the typical procedures advertising agencies take in strategizing, conceptualizing, and delivering campaigns.
