Six-year-old, deeply beloved Jonathan, who was child in St. Augustine neighborhood and joined into the flock of Christ's Church, was the gentlest and most loving child the church has known. He was a gentle giant, and with very few words, he could make you feel like a giant. He was a gentle giant, and with very few words, he could make you feel like a giant. He was a gentle giant, and with very few words, he could make you feel like a giant.
