Book of Mormon Timeline Morgan Choi, 2023-12-05 Timelines of American Literature Cody Marrs, Christopher Hager, 2019-01-29 A collection of engaging essays that seeks to uniquely reperiodize American literature. It is all but inevitable for literary history to be divided into periods: Early American, antebellum, modern, post-1945. Such designations organize our knowledge of the past and shape the ways we discuss that past today. These periods tend to align with the watershed moments in American history, even as the field has shifted its perspective away from the nation-state. It is high time we rethink these defining periods of American literary history as the drawing of literary timelines is a necessary, even illuminating practice. In these short, spirited and imaginative essays, 23 leading Americanists gamely fashion new, unorthodox literary periods from 600 B.C.E. to the present, from the Age of Van Buren to the Age of Microeconomics. They bring to light literary and cultural histories that have been obscured by traditional timelines and raise provocative questions: What is our definition of modernism if we imagine it stretching from 1865 to 1965 instead of 1890 to 1945? How does the captivity narrative change when we consider it as a contemporary, not just a colonial genre? What does the course of American literature look like set against the backdrop of federal denials of Native sovereignty or housing policies that exacerbated segregation? Filled with challenges to scholars, inspirations for teachers, anchored by an appendix of syllabi and entry points for students, Timelines of American Literature gathers some of the most exciting new work in the field to showcase the revelatory potential of fresh thinking about how we organize the literary past.

A Documentary History of the Book of Mormon, 2019-01-02 The story of the creation of the Book of Mormon has been told many times and often ridiculed. A Documentary History of the Book of Mormon presents and examines the primary sources surrounding the origin of the foundational text of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, the most successful new religion of modern times. The scores of documents transcribed and annotated in this book include family histories, journal entries, letters, affidavits, reminiscences, interviews, newspaper articles, and book extracts, as well as revelations dictated in the name of God. From these texts emerges the captivating story of what happened and what was believed or rumored to have happened between September 1823, when the seventeen-year-old farm boy Joseph Smith announced that an angel of God had directed him to an ancient book inscribed on gold plates, and March 1830, when the Book of Mormon was first published. By compiling for the first time a substantial collection of both first and secondhand accounts relevant to the inception of the divine revelation or clever fraud that launched a new world religion, A Documentary History makes a significant contribution to the rapidly growing field of Mormon Studies.

The Ritualization of Mormon History, and Other Essays Davis Bitton, 1994 How did the Latter-day Saints of the 19th century defend their plural marriage system? What kind of poetry was written on the Mormon frontier and what social function did it perform? In a collection intended to convey the excitement and variety of Mormon history, Bitton considers these and other issues and demonstrates how a religious group survives and maintains its sense of identity in the face of change and adaptation to new circumstances Mormon History Ronald Warren Walker, David J. Whittaker, James B.
