Art And Artifice And Other Essays Of Illusion:

Art and Artifice Jim Steinmeyer, 2006 From the author of Hiding the Elephant and The Glorious Deception comes a collection of five essays that shows how the great stage illusions were integrally products of their time based on the traditions and fashions of the people and the offspring of the incredible inventive personalities who brought them to the stage Like no other author Jim Steinmeyer gives us insight into the timeless appeal of magic His human subjects include such characters as Steele MacKaye Maskelyne David Devant P T Selbit Horace Goldin and Charles Morritt Illusions he discusses include The Mascot Moth Sawing a Lady in Halves and Morritt's Disappearing Donkey Art & Artifice and Other Essays on Illusion Jim Steinmeyer, 2006

Narrative Imagination and Everyday Life Molly Andrews, 2014-02 Looks at how stories imagination come together in our daily lives influencing not only our thoughts about what we see and do but also our contemplation of what is possible and what our limitations are

Techniques of Illusion Katharina Rein, 2023-05-03 This book explores stage conjuring during its golden age from about 1860 to 1910 This study provides close readings highlighting four paradigmatic illusions of the time that stand in for different kinds of illusions typical of stage magic in the golden age and analyses them within their cultural and media historical context Pepper's Ghost the archetypical mirror illusion The Vanishing Lady staging a teleportation in a time of a dizzying acceleration of transport the levitation simulating weightlessness with the help of an extended steel machinery and The Second Sight a mind reading illusion using up to date communication technologies These close readings are completed by writings focusing on visual media and expanding the scope backwards and forwards in time roughly to 1800 and to 2000 This exploration will be of great interest to students and scholars in theatre and performance studies Conjuring Asia Chris Goto-Jones, 2016-07-14 This book charts the history of modern magic across India China and Japan analyzing representations in the cultural imagination of the West

Sensationalism and the Genealogy of Modernity Alberto Gabriele, 2016-11-15 This book maps out the temporal and geographic coordinates of the trope of sensationalism in the long nineteenth century through a comparative approach Not only juxtaposing different geographical areas Europe Asia and Oceania this volume also disperses its history over a longue durée allowing readers to perceive the hidden and often unacknowledged continuities throughout a period that is often reduced to the confines of the national disciplines of literature art and cultural studies Providing a wide range of methodological approaches from the fields of literary studies art history sociology of literature and visual culture this collection offers indispensable examples of the relation between literature and several other media Topics include the rhetorical tropes of popular culture the material culture of clothing the lived experience of performance as a sub text of literature and painting and the redefinition of spatiality and temporality in theory art and literature Scenography Expanded, 2017-06-29 Shortlisted for the 2019 TaPRA Edited Collection Prize Scenography Expanded is a foundational text offering readers a thorough introduction to contemporary performance design both in and beyond the theatre It examines the potential of the visual spatial technological material and environmental aspects of performance to shape performative encounters It analyses examples of scenography as sites of imaginative exchange and transformative experience and it discusses the social political and ethical dimensions of performance design The international range of contributors and case studies provide clear perspectives on why scenographic design has become a central consideration for performance makers today The extended introduction defines the characteristics of 21st century scenography and examines the scope and potentials of this new field Across five sections the volume provides examples and case studies which richly illustrate the scope of contemporary scenographic practice and which analyse the various ways in which it is used in global cultural contexts These include mainstream theatre practice experimental theatre installation and live art performance in the city large scale events and popular entertainments and performances by and for specific communities

Fool Me Once Rick Lax,2011 Rick Lax was paranoid to begin with He saw lies everywhere And when he saw them he spoke up But when his girlfriend gets conned by a violent drug dealer nothing Rick does seems to help So what if he misses the next lie What if spotting them isn't enough to protect against them What if exposing lies puts him in even more danger Terrified of being conned himself Rick bolts for Vegas deception capital of the world to learn the game and how to guard against it Rick meets deceivers of all kinds from back alley hustlers and poker pros to the biggest headliners on the Strip During the course of his unconventional education which includes passing himself off as an octogenarian being exposed as a card counter and picking up a hooker inadvertently of course Rick gets closer to becoming a human lie detector but at what cost By the end of Fool Me Once you'll know why seventh graders make better liars than college students how to use a handful of rice as a polygraph and how to bluff a poker pro But above all you'll understand why some things in life are a lot worse than being fooled

Notes Made While Falling Jenn Ashworth,2019-11-05 A genre bending meditation on sickness spirituality creativity and the redemptive powers of writing Notes Made While Falling is both a genre bending memoir and a cultural study of traumatized and sickened selves in fiction and film It offers a fresh visceral and idiosyncratic perspective on creativity spirituality illness and the limits of fiction itself At its heart is a story of a disastrously traumatic childbirth its long aftermath and the out of time roots of both trauma and creativity in an extraordinary childhood Moving from fairgrounds to Agatha Christie from literary festivals to neuroscience and the Bible from Chernobyl to King Lear Ashworth takes us on a fantastic journey through familiar landscapes transformed through unexpected encounters and comic combinations The everyday provides the ground for the macabre and the absurd as the narration twists and stretches time Hovering on the edge of madness writing it seems might keep us sane or might just allow us to keep on living In Notes Made While Falling Ashworth calls for a redefinition of the creative work of thinking writing teaching and being and she underlines the necessity of a fearlessly compassionate and empathic attention to vulnerability and fragility

Media Archaeology and Intermedial Performance Nele Wynants,2018-12-30 This book develops media archaeological approaches to theatre and intermediality As an age old art form theatre has always embraced new media To create theatrical effects and optical illusions theatre makers were ready to integrate state of the art technics and technologies and by doing so they playfully explored and popularized scientific knowledge on mechanics optics and sound for live audiences This book highlights this obvious but often overlooked relation between media developments and the history of intermedial theater By considering the interplay between present intermedial performances and their archaeological traces the authors assembled here revisit old and often forgotten media approaches and theatre technologies This archaeology is understood less as the discovery of a forgotten past than as the establishment of an active relationship between past and present Rather than treating archaeological remains as representative tokens of a fragmented past that need to be preserved the authors stress the return of the past in the present but in a different performative guise
