Art And Place Site Specific Art Of The Americas:

Art & Place Editors of Phaidon, 2013-11-01 Art Place is an extraordinary collection of site specific art in the Americas. Featuring hundreds of powerful art works in 60 cities from Albuquerque to Boston and Baja to Rio de Janeiro the book is both an informative guide and a virtual bucket list of outstanding art destinations. Conceived and developed by Phaidon editors Art Place covers carving painting murals frescos earthworks land art and more. Each of the works has a dedicated entry pairing gorgeous large format images with in depth descriptions. Maps pinpoint the sites locations while specially commissioned plans reveal some of the more complex layouts. The book is organized geographically offering fresh juxtapositions among familiar art works such as Anish Kapoor's Cloud Gate and Robert Smithson's Spiral Jetty alongside lesser known revelations such as Inhotim Centro de Arte Contemporânea in Brazil. Whether in the mountains at the heart of a city or on a remote island the works in Art Place are all inextricably linked with their environment. This is art to experience in an immersive way presented together in a single book for the first time.

Site-Specific Art Nick Kaye, 2013-04-15 Site Specific Art charts the development of an experimental art form in an experimental way. Nick Kaye traces the fascinating historical antecedents of today's installation and performance art while also assembling a unique documentation of contemporary practice around the world. The book is divided into individual analyses of the themes of space materials site and frames. These are interspersed by specially commissioned documentary artwork from some of the world's foremost practitioners and artists working today. This interweaving of critique and creativity has never been achieved on this scale before. Site Specific Art investigates the relationship of architectural theory to an understanding of contemporary site related art and performance and rigorously questions how such works can be documented. The artistic processes involved are demonstrated through entirely new primary articles from Meredith Monk Station House Opera Brith Gof Forced Entertainment. This volume is an astonishing contribution to debates around experimental cross arts practice.

One Place after Another Miwon Kwon, 2004-02-27 A critical history of site specific art since the late 1960s. Site specific art emerged in the late 1960s in reaction to the growing commodification of art and the prevailing ideals of art's autonomy and universality. Throughout the 1970s and 1980s as site specific art intersected with land art process art performance art conceptual art installation art institutional critique community based art and public art its creators insisted on the inseparability of the work and its context. In recent years however the presumption of unrepeatability and immobility encapsulated in Richard Serra's famous dictum to remove the work is to destroy the work is being challenged by new models of site specificity and changes in institutional and market forces. One Place after Another offers a critical history of site specific art since the late 1960s and a theoretical framework for examining the rhetoric of aesthetic vanguardism and political progressivism associated with its many permutations. Informed by urban theory postmodernist criticism in art and architecture and debates concerning identity politics and the public sphere the book addresses the siting of art as more than an artistic problem. It examines site specificity as a complex cipher.
