Art Otherness Crisis In Cultural Identity Documenttext:

Art & Otherness Thomas McEvilley, 1992 Directly following the internationally acclaimed Art Discontent Thomas McEvilley argues in Art Otherness for an advanced anthropological perspective that contravenes conventional thinking in the visual arts and leads to a concept of artistic globalization The description of Western culture as superior and in opposition to other cultures of the world preoccupied our aesthetic philosophy for at least 200 years whether or not explicitly stated That argument was undertaken in various guises especially as the historical determinism of Hegel which proposed to quantify human progress Recently however the term multiculturalism has come to signify a post Modern understanding of how visual arts transgress artificial boundaries and of how there may now exist perhaps for the first time in history a post colonial globalism in the arts freed of ethnocentric value judgements In these ten crucial essays McEvilley clarifies how the presentation of art can determine its reception how influence can be bi directional how otherness serves to define self and how art need not necessarily lose its meaningfulness when stripped of badges of universality Once again illustrating his argument by drawing upon an array of sources and cultures Thomas McEvilley demonstrates that the post Modern crisis in cultural identity demands an imaginative integrating response BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

Trauma, Art and Memory in the Postcolony David Corbet, 2024-12-18 This wide ranging book provides a scholarly account of recent and contemporary memorial and counter memorial practices occurring in the visual arts across diverse postcolonial topologies and imaginaries The emphasis is on commemorative creative practices and responses to traumatic events of recent times within and beyond the Museum This major survey encompasses discourses on perception affect and trauma in the visual arts commissioned civic art and memorial architecture activist and socially engaged art projects creative praxis and expressions of minority and First Nations cultural resilience The book offers insights into contemporary exhibitionary practices decolonial methodologies and spatial politics with a significant focus on art's ability to reveal and reactivate silenced histories sites and non places It will be of great interest to students researchers and subject experts alike across the fields of visual arts architecture and urban planning cultural and memory studies and trauma and affect studies contextualising the work of artists and curators within some of the most urgent socio political environmental and philosophical debates of the twenty first century

The Cultures of Entanglement Suzanne Anker, Sabine Flach, 2024-03-04 The symbolic meaning of plants their relevance to religion and the metaphorical provocations in the order of knowledge culture and political power underline the role of plants as something more than passive objects Current theoretical and artistic discourses have been seeking access to the world independently of man by focusing on the nonhuman other The contributors to this volume examine the historical philosophical and scientific findings that generate this idea In what way are such perspectives manifest in contemporary art Do artists develop a particular approach that enables nonhuman life forms like plants insects or animals to have an impact

Museum Revolutions Simon

Knell, Suzanne MacLeod, Sheila Watson, 2007-09-12 Capturing the richness of the museum studies discipline Museum Revolutions is the ideal text for museum studies courses providing a wide range of interlinked themes and the latest thought and research from experts in the field

Contemporary Art: A Very Short Introduction Julian Stallabrass, 2006-03-23 Contemporary art has never been so popular but what is contemporary about contemporary art What is its role today and who is controlling its future Bloody toy soldiers gilded shopping carts and embroidered tents Contemporary art is supposed to be a realm of freedom where artists shock break taboos flout generally received ideas and switch between confronting viewers with works of great emotional profundity and jaw dropping triviality But away from shock tactics in the gallery there are many unanswered questions Who is really running the art world What effect has America's growing political and cultural dominance had on art Julian Stallabrass takes us inside the international art world to answer these and other controversial questions and to argue that behind contemporary art's variety and apparent unpredictability lies a grim uniformity Its mysteries are all too easily explained its depths much shallower than they seem Contemporary art seeks to bamboozle its viewers while being the willing slave of business and government This book is your antidote and will change the way you see contemporary art

ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable

Productive failure Alpesh Kantilal Patel, 2017-07-21 This title sets out to write new transnational South Asian art histories to make visible histories of artworks that remain marginalised within the discipline of art history However this is done through a deliberate productive failure specifically by not upholding the strictly genealogical approach that is regularly assumed for South Asian art histories For instance one chapter explores the abstract work of Cy Twombly and Natvar Bhavsar The author examines whiteness the invisible ground upon which racialized art histories often pivot as a fraught yet productive site for writing art history This book also provides original commentary on how queer theory can deconstruct and provide new approaches for writing art history Overall this title provides methods for generating art history that acknowledge the complex web of factors within which art history is produced and the different forms of knowledge production we might count as art history

Museums and Maori Conal McCarthy, 2016-06-16 This groundbreaking book explores the revolution in New Zealand museums that is influencing the care and exhibition of indigenous objects worldwide Drawing on practical examples and research in all kinds of institutions Conal McCarthy explores the history of relations between museums and indigenous peoples innovative exhibition practices community engagement and curation He lifts the lid on current practice showing how museum professionals deal with the indigenous objects in their care engage with tribal communities and meet the needs of visitors The first critical study of its kind Museums and Maori is an indispensable resource for professionals working with indigenous objects indigenous communities and cultural centers and for researchers and students in museology and indigenous studies programs

Native American Art in the Twentieth Century W.

Jackson Rushing III, 2013-09-27 This illuminating and provocative book is the first anthology devoted to Twentieth Century Native American and First Nation art. Native American Art brings together anthropologists, art historians, curators, critics, and distinguished Native artists to discuss pottery, painting, sculpture, printmaking, photography, and performance art by some of the most celebrated Native American and Canadian First Nation artists of our time. The contributors use new theoretical and critical approaches to address key issues for Native American art, including symbolism and spirituality, the role of patronage and museum practices, the politics of art criticism, and the aesthetic power of indigenous knowledge. The artist contributors, who represent several Native nations including Cherokee, Lakota, Plains Cree, and those of the Plateau country, emphasise the importance of traditional stories, mythologies, and ceremonies in the production of contemporary art. Within great poignancy, they write about recent art in terms of home, homeland, and aboriginal sovereignty. Tracing the continued resistance of Native artists to dominant orthodoxies of the art market and art history, Native American Art in the Twentieth Century argues forcefully for Native art's place in modern art history.

Surrealism and the Exotic Louise Tythacott, 2003-09-02

Surrealism and the Exotic is the story of the obsessive relationship between surrealist and non-western culture. Describing the travels across Africa, Oceania, Mexico, and the Caribbean made by wealthy aesthetes, it combines an insight into the mentality of early twentieth-century collectors with an overview of the artistic heritage at stake in these adventures. Featuring more than 70 photographs of artefacts, exhibitions, and expeditions in progress, it brings to life the climate of hedonism enjoyed by Breton, Ernst, Dürkheim, and Mauss. It is an unparalleled introduction to the Surrealist movement and to French thought and culture in the 1920s and 1930s.

Museums After Modernism Griselda Pollock, Joyce Zemans, 2008-04-15

Museums After Modernism is a unique collection that showcases the ways questions about the museum go to the heart of contemporary debates about the production, consumption, and distribution of art. The book features expert artists, curators, and art historians who grapple with many of the vibrant issues in museum studies while paying homage to a new museology that needs to be considered. Examines the key contemporary debates in museum studies. Includes original essays by noted artists, curators, and art historians. Engages with vital issues in the practice of art making and art exhibiting. Edited by the world-renowned art historian and author Griselda Pollock.
