Asia-Pacific Legal Development Gerry Ferguson, 1998-11-01 In this age of globalization many legal experts see evidence of swift global movement toward an eventual single world legal system Yet the trend to political and economic integration in some parts of the world is matched by the trend to disintegration in others where strong cultural and political resistance to external influences exists Asia Pacific Legal Development traces current and prospective developments in several legal systems of the Asia Pacific region to make sense of these trends and counter trends The contributing authors represent a wide variety of specialist expertise both public and private and together they encompass the three sectors that constitute a modern system of formal law the economic the behavioural and the civic Taking into account the opinions and perspectives of both indigenous and non indigenous experts on topics ranging from prostitution to constitutional law the book surveys how several ASEAN nations as well as Canada Australia and New Zealand are confronting social economic and legal change In the first three parts chapters are grouped along general sectoral lines to cover economic civic and behavioural themes while in the fourth cross sectoral contexts are addressed With the introduction and concluding chapter the editors provide an overall integrating framework as well as provocative insights into trends in legal development in the Asia Pacific region and on comparative legal research and writing in general Asia Pacific Legal Development is not only an exemplary model for cooperative and comparative legal research and scholarly pluralism but also a rich study of the increasingly relevant issue of convergence and divergence of legal systems with a unique Asian focus
