Artist Teacher A Philosophy For Creating And Teaching:

Artist-teacher G. James Daichendt, 2010 The philosophy of the artist teacher is not a new phenomenon In fact many artists working within the Bauhaus nineteenth century Schools of Design and The Basic Design Movement all applied this method of thinking to their teaching The Artist Teacher explores the many facets of this methodology and the various ways art has been taught over the centuries using several important artist teachers George Wallis Walter Gropius Richard Hamilton Hans Hoffman to illustrate the rich and deep ways artists are able to facilitate learning The Artist Teacher will serve as a foundational text for Teaching Artist Handbook, Volume One Nick Jaffe, Becca Barniskis, Barbara Hackett Cox, 2015-02-04 Originally published Chicago Columbia College Chicago Press 2013 Artist-Teachers in Context Raphael Vella, 2016-08-18 This book brings together interviews with twenty one artist teachers from different parts of the world offering many insights into their identities challenges and creative and pedagogic practices they have adopted Based in a range of educational situations from compulsory to post secondary education art schools departments of art education and community based environments these educators discuss their own training in fine art and or art education research interests teaching methods and theoretical outlooks collaborative projects students ambitions exhibitions and the different approaches they use to connect their educational and artistic commitments The discussions take place against a contextual backdrop that is tackled in every interview bringing to the fore the impact of social political historical and institutional frameworks on artist teachers Illustrated with images of works and projects by each artist teacher in the book the volume combines the visual and the verbal in a way that reflects the complex experiences and identities of the interviewees Raphael Vella is a Senior Lecturer in Art Education at the Faculty of Education University of Malta Apart from coordinating and teaching in art education courses he also teaches courses in fine art and theory His publications address the relationships between contemporary artistic practices and education art education in the Mediterranean identity in art education photography and cultural studies and arts based research He is also actively involved in the curation of international and Maltese exhibitions and cultural events and in recent years he initiated projects such as Divergent Thinkers aimed at creating a platform for emerging artists based in Malta and the Valletta International Visual Arts festival VIVA He is also a practising artist having shown his work in many contexts including Malta Venice Warsaw Tokyo Reims Buenos Aires Nicosia and Oxford Ebook: Professional Learning for Artist Teachers: How to Balance Practice and Pedagogy Rachel Payne, 2024-01-10 In the context of one of the most difficult times for art and design education that I can remember Dr Rachel Payne s timely volume gives hope it provides a valuable and inspirational resource for established and aspiring creative practitioners concerned with meaningful teaching and learning Richard Hickman Fellow of NSEAD UK Those of us in the arts who need reassurance that our work matters that our work remains essential to a holistic education for children youth and adults and that artist teachers can reclaim recover and reimagine their professional practices in the midst of governmental controls then this is our book Rita Irwin Professor of Art Education The University of British Columbia Canada More than most educators art teachers have to negotiate two professional identities of artist and teacher In Professional Learning for Artist Teachers Pedagogy Practice and Partnership in UK Contexts Rachel Payne brings together innovative discourse from academics artists researchers and professionals working for cultural organisations to support the symbiosis of artist and teacher Professional Learning for Artist Teachers is a book of balance combining theory and practice to offer pedagogic strategies and placing great importance on individual contexts while considering external factors The text Comprises a wide range of bespoke perspectives and experiential content Explores cultural partnerships within higher education programmes Focuses on the UK context while examining how the field differs regionally nationally and internationally Offering pedagogic and practical insights drawing from the contributing authors extensive experience this book will be of interest to practitioners academics and students alike Rachel Payne is the Deputy Head for Education and Student Experience at Oxford Brookes University UK Here she is also subject coordinator for the MA Education Artist Teacher Practice which is run in partnership with the Pitt Rivers Museum University of Oxford UK

Artist-Teacher Practice and the Expectation of an Aesthetic Life Carol Wild, 2022-07-08 This book explores why and how the personal creative practice of arts teachers in school matters It responds to ethnographic research that considers specific works of art created by teachers within the context of their classrooms Through a classroom based ethnographic investigation the book proposes that the potential impact of artist teacher practice in the classroom can only be understood in relation to the flows of power and policy that concurrently shape the classroom It shows how artist teacher practice functions as a creative practice of freedom tending to the present and future aesthetic life of the classroom countering the effects of neoliberal schooling and austerity politics The book questions what the artist teacher can produce within that context Through the unique focus on artist teacher practice the book explores the changing nature of the classroom and the social and political dimensions of the school It will be key reading for researchers and postgraduate students of arts education critical pedagogy teacher identity and aesthetics It will also be of interest to art and design educators
