Beholders Eye Collection Americas Journalism:

The Beholder's Eye Scott Anderson, Mary Kay Blakely, Harry Crews, 2007-12-01 A collection of the very best in contemporary first person journalism compiled by the award winning former Washington Post reporter and author Great journalists at one time or another have all been characters in their own stories people with personalities that shaped what they saw and reported and were touched and changed by the experiences about which they wrote and innovators who borrowed the storytelling techniques of fiction The Beholder's Eye showcases the very best of an increasing trend toward personal narrative Mike Sager stalking Marlon Brando in the Tahitian jungle J R Moehringer's quest to discover the true identity of an old boxer Bill Plaschke's story about a woman with cerebral palsy who runs an obscure Los Angeles Dodgers Web site Scott Anderson's story of his lifetime of covering war after war Harrington's own tale of his interracial family's struggle to persevere and many others Written by reporters who were willing to reveal themselves in order to bring readers insights that were deeper than supposedly objective third person stories their articles are an invaluable resource for aspiring journalists students and teachers of the craft of writing and any reader with an appreciation for masterful storytelling Aims to dispel the old journalistic cliché that a journalist writing about him/herself is always self-indulgent and quite likely narcissistic He couldn't have put together a better lineup of writers to make the point that it doesn't have to be Not just some of the country's finest personal journalism but some of its finest journalism period Kirkus Reviews Seeking to Understand the World: Literary Journalism of Vincent Sheean Anish Dave, 2023-05-30 Vincent Sheean a groundbreaking American foreign correspondent and author is known for reporting from Europe North Africa and Asia writing news reports articles and books A few books and articles have described Vincent Sheean's life and briefly discussed his major nonfiction books However no book length study or article has closely examined his nonfiction books Seeking to Understand the World Literary Journalism of Vincent Sheean textually analyzes his five nonfiction journalistic books to examine them for characteristics of literary journalism Spanning nearly the entirety of his journalistic career these books include Personal History 1935 Not Peace but a Sword 1939 Between the Thunder and the Sun 1943 Lead Kindly Light 1949 and Nehru The Years of Power 1960 Set in different world areas the books illuminate events as disparate as the Riffian war the Spanish Civil War the infamous Munich pact the Nazi bombing of London and the assassination of Mahatma Gandhi Sheean's books provide an in depth personal look at these and related events This book includes analysis of Sheean's works finding that they have several prominent characteristics of literary journalism stories and scenes cohesive structure lifelike characters vivid description well crafted sentences immersive reporting among others The Routledge Companion to American Literary Journalism William Dow, Roberta Maguire, 2019-11-13 Taking a thematic approach this new companion provides an interdisciplinary cross cultural and international study of American literary journalism From the work of Frederick Douglass and Walt Whitman to that of Joan Didion and Dorothy Parker literary journalism is a genre that both reveals and shapes American history and identity This volume not only calls attention to literary journalism as a distinctive genre but also provides a critical foundation for future scholarship It brings together cutting edge research from literary journalism scholars examining historical perspectives themes venues and genres across time theoretical approaches and disciplinary intersections and new directions for scholarly inquiry Provoking reconsideration and inquiry while providing new historical interpretations this companion recognizes interacts with and honors the tradition and legacies of American literary journalism scholarship Engaging the work of disciplines such as sociology anthropology African American studies gender studies visual studies media studies and American studies in addition to journalism and literary studies this book is perfect for students and scholars of those disciplines True Stories Norman Sims, Medill School of Journalism, 2007 Journalism in the twentieth century was marked by the rise of literary journalism Sims traces more than a century of its history examining the cultural connections competing journalistic schools of thought and innovative writers that have given literary journalism its power Seminal examples of the genre provide ample context and background for the study of this style of journalism

Telling True Stories Mark Kramer, Wendy Call, 2007-01-30 Interested in journalism and creative writing and want to write a book Read inspiring stories and practical advice from America's most respected journalists The country's most prominent journalists and nonfiction authors gather each year at Harvard's Nieman Conference on Narrative Journalism Telling True Stories presents their best advice covering everything from finding a good topic to structuring narrative stories to writing and selling your first book More than fifty well known writers offer their most powerful tips including Tom Wolfe on the emotional core of the story Gay Talese on writing about private lives Malcolm Gladwell on the limits of profiles Nora Ephron on narrative writing and screenwriters Alma Guillermoprieto on telling the story and telling the truth Dozens of Pulitzer Prize winning journalists from the Atlantic Monthly New Yorker New York Times Los Angeles Times Washington Post and more The essays contain important counsel for new and career journalists as well as for freelance writers radio producers and memoirists Packed with refreshingly candid and insightful recommendations Telling True Stories will show anyone fascinated by the art of writing nonfiction how to bring people scenes and ideas to life on the page Workbook for News Reporting and Writing Brian S. Brooks, Missouri Group, George Kennedy, Daryl R. Moen, Don Ranly, 2010-11-10 It's a tumultuous time in journalism as media forms evolve and new models emerge There are few clear answers but no one is more prepared than The Missouri Group to tackle these issues head on and to teach students the core enduring journalism skills they need to succeed whether they write for the local paper a professional blog cable news or even work in public relations The Memoir and the Memoirist Thomas Larson, 2007-05-15 The memoir is the most popular and expressive literary form of our time Writers embrace the memoir and readers devour it propelling many memoirs by relative unknowns to the top of the best seller list Writing programs challenge authors to disclose themselves in personal narrative Memoir and personal narrative urge writers to face the intimacies of the self and ask what is true In The Memoir and the Memoirist critic and memoirist Thomas Larson explores the craft and purpose of writing this new form Larson guides the reader from the autobiography and the personal essay to the memoir a genre focused on a particularly emotional relationship in the author's past an intimate story concerned more with who is remembering and why than with what is remembered The Memoir and the Memoirist touches on the nuances of memory of finding and telling the truth and of disclosing one's deepest self It explores the craft and purpose of personal narrative by looking in detail at more than a dozen examples by writers such as Mary Karr Frank McCourt Dave Eggers Elizabeth Wurtzel Mark Doty Nuala O Faolain Rick Bragg and Joseph Lelyveld to show what they reveal about themselves Larson also opens up his own writing and that of his students to demonstrate the hidden mechanics of the writing process For both the interested reader of memoir and the writer wrestling with the craft The Memoir and the Memoirist provides guidance and insight into the many facets of this provocative and popular art form

The Beholder's Eye Walt Harrington, 2005 Great journalists at one time or another have all been characters in their own stories people with personalities that shaped what they saw and reported and were touched and changed by the experiences about which they wrote and innovators who borrowed the storytelling techniques of fiction The Beholder's Eye showcases the very best of an increasing trend toward personal narrative Mike Sager stalking Marlon Brando in the Tahitian jungles J R Moehringer's quest to discover the true identity of an old boxer Bill Plaschke's story about a woman with cerebral palsy who runs an obscure Los Angeles Dodgers Web site Scott Anderson's story of his lifetime of covering war after war Harrington's own tale of his interracial family's struggle to persevere and many others Written by reporters who were willing to reveal themselves in order to bring readers insights that were deeper than supposedly objective third person stories their articles are an invaluable resource for aspiring journalists students and teachers of the craft of writing and any reader with an appreciation for masterful storytelling
