Being Made Strange Being Made Strange:

The Strange Tale of Thaddeus Traveler Shand Stringham, 2021-10-14 Some people mistakenly believe that the earliest reported UFO crash in the United States occurred at Roswell New Mexico in 1947 It did not There are several other reported incidents about earlier UFO crashes in the literature One of the earliest reported crashes occurred fully fifty years before Roswell in Aurora Texas in 1897 This story was suggested by a news article that first appeared in the Dallas Morning News in 1897 which describes the crash of an unidentified aircraft into the windmill and water tower of Judge James Proctor who lived with his wife just outside the little town of Aurora Texas The pilot of the aircraft perished in the crash but a close examination of his burnt and broken body revealed that he was not of this world History records and the alien was buried in the Aurora City Cemetery Although a modern search for his remains have never produced any results The novel also reveals the unreported story of the passenger on the aircraft who escaped detection and ultimately wended his way into the Aurora community

Ignorance Andrew Bennett, 2013-07-19 Andrew Bennett argues in this fascinating book that ignorance is part of the narrative and poetic force of literature and is an important aspect of its thematic focus ignorance is what literary texts are about He sees that the dominant conception of literature since the Romantic period involves an often unacknowledged engagement with the experience of not knowing From Wordsworth and Keats to George Eliot and Charles Dickens from Henry James to Joseph Conrad from Elizabeth Bowen to Philip Roth and Seamus Heaney writers have been fascinated and compelled by the question of ignorance including their own Bennett argues that there is a politics and ethics as well as a poetics of ignorance literature's agnology its acknowledgement of the limits of what we know both of ourselves and of others engages with the possibility of democracy and the ethical and allows us to begin to conceive of what it might mean to be human This exciting approach to literary theory will be of interest to lecturers and students of literary theory and criticism

The Life and Strange Surprising Adventures of Robinson Crusoe of York, Mariner Daniel Defoe, 1845 Odd Tom Coryate R. E.
