Being Love Sister Shivani, Suresh Oberoi, 2019 We can each radiate unconditional love We don t even need to create it we are love But the flow of love is blocked in moments of hurt blame anger criticism competition or insecurity These emotions have dominated our emotional space and hardly enable us to feel our own love So today we rely on someone else to love us This book teaches us to think right enable self love feel it and extend it to other people The central message here is that love is not out there but within us A spectrum of emotions like attachment expectations hurt worry stress fear or anger which we use in the pretext of love are analysed The conversations also explore the fact that the parent child relationship is not challenging It does not need to be As you free yourself from judgments and expectations as you start thinking right for people and as you accept people for who they are you become a Radiator of unconditional love You are one decision away from vibrating at a frequency of love by not needing love or giving love but just by being love

Works of Love Robert L. Perkins, 1999 To claim that Works of Love is an important philosophical essay is to assume hazardous burden of proof The book s title is an allusion to the Bible s injunction that we should love our neighbor as we love ourselves a far cry far instance from Diotoma s ladder of erotic desire up which we climb from the love of bodies until we catch a vision of that single sea of beauty beauty itself Plato Symposium This contrast given that some of some of our neighbors may not be particularly likable or one may even be a determined enemy suggests immediately to some that a book with such an obviously religious title must be excessively moralistic and at best full of sermon helps for the harried clergy or at worst laden with rules for the unlearned laity A casual perusal of a few paragraphs however shows these put down views of the book to be unfounded

The End of Divine Truthiness: Love, Power, and God Paul Joseph Greene, 2017-08-01 In The End of Divine Truthiness Paul Joseph Greene confronts stark realities of terrifying theologies that make a mockery out of divine love With urgent resolve Greene answers Martin Luther King Jr s pointed challenge to overcome reckless and abusive power without love and sentimental and anemic love without power Too many theologies cast God either as the tyrant whose loveless power lifts up the mighty or the victim whose powerless love sends the poor away empty Wielding Stephen Colbert s word truthiness as a scalpel Greene slices out one perilous theology after another to restore the wholesome truth that God is love Supported by three world religions Buddhism Christianity and Taoism he discovers a remarkably harmonious and revolutionary divine power that is fully aligned with divine love To reunify love and power here in the world as King challenges it is time to abandon ideologies of divine power that devastate divine love and promote atrocities Greene s call for the end of divine truthiness heralds a new day for the God whose love is power and whose power is love
