Being White Finding Our Place In A Multiethnic World:

Being White Paula Harris,Doug Schaupp,2004-08-06 Are you white Do you know what this means Are you aware of racial inequality but have wondered So what do I do Paula Harris and Doug Schaupp present a Christian model of what it means to be white wrestling with issues of history power identity culture reconciliation relationship and community Being White Paula Harris,2009-12 What does it mean to be white In our culture whites have not always used their power and privilege responsibly As a result those from other racial and ethnic backgrounds may respond to you differently or suspiciously simply because of your whiteness You may feel ambivalent about your own identity as a white person Perhaps you have been frustrated when a friend of another ethnicity shakes his head and tells you You just don t get it because you re white How can whites overcome the mistakes of the past How can they build authentic relationships with people from other backgrounds In this groundbreaking book Paula Harris and Doug Schaupp present a Christian model of what it means to be white They wrestle through the history of how those in the majority have oppressed minority cultures but they also show that whites have their own cultural and ethnic identity with its own distinctive traits and contributions They demonstrate that white people have a key role to play in the work of racial reconciliation and the forging of a more just society Filled with real life stories life transforming insights and practical guidance this book is for any white who is aware of racial inequality but has wondered So what do I do Discover here a vision for just communities where whites can use their influence to empower those of other ethnicities Being White Paula Harris,Doug Schaupp,2009-08-20 Are you white Do you know what this means Are you aware of racial inequality but have wondered So what do I do Paula Harris and Doug Schaupp present a Christian model of what it means to be white wrestling with issues of history power identity culture reconciliation relationship and community

Pathways to Transformation Carrie J. Boden,Sola M. Kippers,2012-08-01 Pathways to Transformation Learning in Relationship is an edited collection that synthesizes current research on transformative learning and expands the current knowledge base This book is timely and significant as it provides a synthesis of some of the most exciting research in two fields adult education and human services The objectives of this themed edited collection Pathways to Transformation Learning in Relationship are threefold First this collection serves as a space to synthesize current research on transformative learning Through an extensive literature review the editors have discerned several important strands of research in the area of transformative learning and solicited chapters dealing with these topics The second objective of the collection is to expand the current knowledge base in the area of transformative learning by creating a space for dialog on the subject and bringing together diverse voices The third objective of the collection is to transcend the field of adult education with a specific goal to reach an audience in human services psychology counseling social work marriage and family therapy Preaching with Cultural Intelligence Matthew D. Kim,2017-10-17 To preach effectively in today s world preachers need cultural intelligence They must build bridges between listeners who come from various denominations ethnicities genders locations religious backgrounds and more Experienced preacher and teacher Matthew Kim provides a step by step template for cross cultural hermeneutics and homiletics equipping preachers to reach their varied listeners in the church and beyond Each chapter includes questions for individual thought or group discussion The book also includes helpful diagrams and images a sample sermon and appendixes for exegeting listeners and for exploring cultural differences The Worlds of the Preacher Scott M. Gibson, 2018-04-17 Building on Haddon Robinson's philosophical approach to preaching this book brings together accomplished evangelical preachers and teachers to help students and pastors understand the worlds biblical cultural and personal that influence and impact their preaching The contributors explore the various inner and outer worlds in which a preacher functions with the goal of helping preachers sharpen their craft Foreword by Bryan Chapell Nurturing Hope Lynne M. Baab, 2018-08-01 Trends and skills for those who offer pastoral care Christian pastoral care has changed a great deal in the past few decades in response to many factors in our rapidly changing world In part 1 of Nurturing Hope Lynne Baab discusses seven trends in pastoral care shifts in who delivers pastoral care the attitudes and commitments that undergird pastoral care and societal trends that are shaping pastoral care today She illustrates them with stories from diverse congregations where Christian caregivers are meeting those challenges in creative and exciting ways In the second half of the book Baab presents four practical doable energizing skills needed by pastoral carers in our time Focusing on skills that help carers nurture connections between everyday life and Christian faith she explores the need for carers to understand common stressors listen pray with others and nurture their personal resilience Grounded in an understanding of God as the true caregiver and healer the author offers tips for readers who are training other pastoral carers or developing their own understanding and skills Each chapter ends with discussion and reflection questions making the book helpful for groups Lynne Baab brings readers hope for their caring role and for their own spiritual journey I Bring the Voices of My People Chanequa Walker-Barnes, 2019-10-01 Disrupting the racist and sexist biases in conversations on reconciliation Chanequa Walker Barnes offers a compelling argument that the Christian racial reconciliation movement is incapable of responding to modern day racism She demonstrates how reconciliation's roots in the evangelical male centered Promise Keepers movement has resulted in a patriarchal and largely symbolic effort focused upon improving relationships between men from various racial ethnic groups Walker Barnes argues that highlighting the voices of women of color is critical to developing any genuine efforts toward reconciliation Drawing upon intersectionality theory and critical race studies she demonstrates how living at the intersection of racism and sexism exposes women of color to unique experiences of gendered racism that are not about relationships but rather are about systems of power and inequity Refuting the idea that race and racism are one size fits all I Bring the Voices of My People highlights the particular work that White Americans must do to repent of racism and to work toward racial justice and offers a constructive view of reconciliation that prioritizes eliminating racial injustice and healing the damage that it has done to African Americans and other people of color Beyond
