This time on a special mission to the United States to investigate a conspiracy involving the biggest horse races in the country. Jeff Hinkley, investigator for the British Horseracing Authority, has been seconded to the US Federal Anti Corruption in Sports Agency, FACSAs, where he has been asked to find a mole in their organization, an informant who is passing on confidential information to those under suspicion in American racing. At the Kentucky Derby, Jeff joins the FACSAs team in a raid on a horse trainer's barn at Churchill Downs, but the bust is a disaster and someone ends up dead. Then on the morning of the Derby itself, three of the most favored horses in the field fall sick. These suspicious events can be no coincidence. In search of answers, Jeff goes undercover as a groom on the backstretch at Belmont Park racetrack in New York. But he discovers far more than he was bargaining for: corrupt individuals who will stop at nothing, including murder, to capture the most elusive prize in world sport, the Triple Crown. Front Runner Felix Francis, 2015-10-13 British investigator Jefferson Hinkley is back in this compelling Dick Francis thriller by the New York Times bestselling author of Crisis. He had no form of identification on him and no one claims the body. Doctor Rankin is intrigued by the nameless dead man, obsessed even, and starts asking questions. However, someone doesn't want the questions answered and will go to any lengths to prevent it, including attempting murder. But no one else believes that someone tried to kill Chris, leaving the doctor no option but to discover who the nameless man is and why he died, preferably before following him into an early grave.
