offers a detailed analysis of the issues related to the protection of non traditional marks In recent years the domain of trademark law and the scope of trademark protection has grown exponentially Today a wide variety of non traditional marks including colour sound smell and shape marks can be registered in many jurisdictions However this expansion of trademark protection has led to heated discussions and controversies about the impact of the protection of non traditional marks on freedom of competition and more generally on socially valuable use of these or similar signs in unrelated non commercial contexts These tensions have also led to increasing litigation in this area across several jurisdictions This book provides an overview of the debate and state of the law surrounding non traditional marks at the international regional and national level

In particular this book addresses relevant international treaties administered by the World Intellectual Property Organization WIPO and the Agreement on Trade Related Aspects to Intellectual Property Rights TRIPS as well as several regional and national legislations and leading judicial decisions in order to examine current law and practice culminating in critical reflections and suggestions on the topic This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 3 0 licence It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations

Mechanisms to Enable Follow-On Innovation Alina Wernick, 2021-05-13 The patent system is based on one patent per product presumption and therefore fails to sustain complex follow on innovations that contain a number of patents The book explains that follow on innovations may be subject to market failures such as hold ups and excessive royalties For decades scholars have debated whether the market problems can be solved with voluntary licensing i e open innovation or with compulsory liability rules The book concludes that neither approach is sufficient On the one hand incentives to engage in open innovation practices involving patents are insufficient On the other hand the existing compulsory liability rules in patent and competition law are not tailored to address follow on innovator s interests To transcend this problem the author proposes a compulsory liability rule against the suppression of follow on innovation that paradoxically fosters early on voluntary licensing between patent holders and follow on innovators The book is aimed at patent and competition law scholars and practitioners patent attorneys managers engineers and economists who either engage in open innovation involving patents or conduct research on the topic It also offers insights to policy and law makers reviewing the possibilities to foster open innovation initiatives or adapt the scope of patent remedies or employ compulsory licenses for patents

Kritika Peter Drahos, Gustavo Ghidini, Hanns Ullrich, 2015 The field of intellectual property has broadened and deepened in so many ways and at such pace that there is a tendency for academic commentators to focus on the next new thing or to react immediately to judicial developments rather than to reflect more deeply on the greater themes of the discipline The Kritika Essays on Intellectual Property series is a series of books that are designed to fulfill this role by creating a forum for essays that take a critical long term approach to the field of intellectual property Breaking down the barriers of specialization and laying the foundation for an emergent critical scholarship this first book in the series brings together the leading scholars in the field to reflect deeply on the current state and future of their discipline

Research Handbook on Intellectual Property Licensing Jacques de Werra, Irene Calboli, 2025-08-11 In this thoroughly revised and expanded second edition of an acclaimed Handbook leading experts explore the multiple facets of IP licensing law from a global and comparative perspective
