An Introduction to the Critical Study and Knowledge of the Holy Scriptures Thomas Hartwell Horne, 1852 Embodiment of Divine Knowledge in Early Judaism Andrei A. Orlov, 2021-11-11 This book explores the early Jewish understanding of divine knowledge as divine presence which is embodied in major biblical exemplars such as Adam Enoch Jacob and Moses The study treats the concept of divine knowledge as the embodied divine presence in its full historical and interpretive complexity by tracing the theme through a broad variety of ancient Near Eastern and Jewish sources including Mesopotamian traditions of cultic statues creational narratives of the Hebrew Bible and later Jewish mystical testimonies Orlov demonstrates that some biblical and pseudepigraphical accounts postulate that the theophany expresses the unique corporeal nature of the deity that cannot be fully grasped or conveyed in some other non corporeal symbolism medium or language The divine presence requires another presence in order to be transmitted To be communicated properly and in its full measure the divine iconic knowledge must be written on a new living body which can hold the ineffable presence of God through a newly acquired ontology Embodiment of Divine Knowledge in Early Judaism will provide an invaluable research to students and scholars in a wide range of areas within Jewish Near Eastern and Biblical Studies as well as those studying religious elements of anthropology philosophy sociology psychology and gender studies Through the study of Jewish mediatorial figures this book also elucidates the roots of early Christological developments making it attractive to Christian audiences

The Dead Sea Genesis Apocryphon Daniel Machiela, 2009-10-23 The so called Genesis Apocryphon 1Q20 from Qumran Cave 1 has suffered from decades of neglect due in large part to its poor state of preservation As part of a resurgent scholarly interest in the Apocryphon and its prominent position among the Aramaic Dead Sea Scrolls this volume presents a fresh transcription translation and extensive textual notes drawing on close study of the original manuscript all available photographs and previous publications In addition a detailed analysis of columns 13 15 and their relation to the oft cited parallel in the Book of Jubilees reveals a number of ways in which the two works differ thereby highlighting several distinctive features of the Genesis Apocryphon The result is a reliable text edition and a fuller understanding of the message conveyed by this fragmentary but fascinating retelling of Genesis

The Corruption and

Redemption of Creation Harry Hahne, 2006-01-01 This book explores the role of nature in Jewish apocalypses and makes a comparison between early Jewish theology and that of Christian theology as recorded in Romans 8 19 22 Miscellanies: Essays, tracts or addresses, moral & religious Francis William Newman, 1887 The Glory of the Invisible God Andrei Orlov, 2019-12-26 Andrei Orlov examines early Christological developments in the light of rabbinic references to the two powers in heaven tracing the impact of this concept through both canonical and non canonical material Orlov begins by looking at imagery of the two powers in early Jewish literature in particular the book of Daniel and in pseudepigraphical writings He then traces the concept through rabbinic literature and applies this directly to understanding of Christological debates Orlov finally carries out a close examination of the two powers traditions in Christian literature in particular accounts of the Transfiguration and the Baptism of Jesus Including a comprehensive bibliography listing texts and translations and secondary literature this volume is a key resource in researching the development of Christology
