countryside sullen anxiety among hard pressed farmers is rapidly replacing patriotism In Zurich Lenin with the smallest of all revolutionary groups plots his sinister logistical miracle With masterly and moving empathy through the eyes of both historical and fictional protagonists Solzhenitsyn unforgettably transports us to that time and place the last of pre Soviet Russia Translated by H T Willetts November 1916 is the second volume in Solzhenitsyn s multi part work the Red Wheel following August 1914 The final volumes will deal with March and April of 1917 Each volume concentrates on a historical turning point or knot as the wheel rolls on inexorably toward revolution The Cambridge Companion to the French Novel Timothy Unwin,1997-10-28 This volume offers a unique and valuable insight into the novel in French over the past two centuries In a series of essays acknowledged experts discuss a variety of topics including nineteenth century realism women and fiction popular fiction experiment and innovation war and the Holocaust the Francophone novel and postmodern fiction They offer a challenging reassessment of major figures while deliberately reading traditional views of literary history against the grain Theoretical discussion is combined with close reading of texts and exploration of context comparison with other genres and other literatures and reference to novels from earlier periods This companionable introduction includes a chronology and guide to further reading From it emerges a strong sense of the vitality and energy of the modern French novel and of the debates surrounding it The Self-begetting Novel Steven G.
