A Psychoanalysis For Our Time:

A Psychoanalysis for Our Time Jeffrey Rubin, 1998-11 As a psychoanalyst and psychotherapist Rubin argues that psychoanalysis is in need of revision in order to remain relevant today because its interest in both decoding and concealing the truth is simultaneously its strength and weakness Rubin attempts a middle course between blind acceptance and premature dismissal Although parts one and two focus on the history institutions and theory of psychoanalysis the remainder constitutes a non traditional and self consciously experimental approach wherein the author reflects on his own work his theoretical omissions and the unsolved problems in his discourse Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
